PRINCIPAL ACCUSED BY GIRL

Lawrence Man Resigns After Girl Tells of Attempt to Kiss

Lawrence, May 11.—Charges of a twenty-year-old girl that Principal Timothy J. Doyle of the Industrial School attempted to kiss her led today to his tendering his resignation to the chairman of the School Committee.

T. J. Doyle.

Doyle took this action on demand from Trustee Joseph A. Norton, who also questioned the disposition of monies accruing from the sale of unused equipment.

The girl is a night school pupil.

The principal was questioned at length in the presence of the complainant, a school trustee, representatives of the Catholic Charity Centre and police officials at the office of City Marshal O'Brien.

The accused man denied any impropriety. In his resignation he wrote: "Recently greatly exaggerated charges have been made against me. Paternal advice has been misconstrued and improper motives placed upon it. I believe that time will clear me of the charges and the imputation against my character."

PRISONERS SLEEP AS FIRE IS RAGING

Concord Junction, May 11.—While the Massachusetts Reformatory fire brigade battled a fire in the picker room of the woolen mill connected with the institution early today the majority of the 500 inmates slept. The fire damaged one room in a small one-story brick building. Spontaneous combustion is believed to have been the cause.

MRS. HAYES IS DUPE, SAYS GIRL

Secretary Hints at a Man "Higher Up" in $2,000,000 Forgery Case

Mrs. Myrtle B. Hayes is not the only woman connected with Chatham, Inc., the storm centre of Mrs. Hayes' spectacular adventures in high finance.

Another woman—Miss Hazel Berry of Newtonville—acted as general secretary of Chatham, Inc.

The Boston American has obtained from Miss Berry the first interview concerning the activities of Mrs. Hayes with Chatham, Inc. According to Miss Berry, Mrs. Hayes' forgeries were suspected by others in the company a month before her indictment by the grand jury in New York.

Her brother, an officer in the company, quarreled with her about her operations, and threatened to resign from the company as a result, Miss Berry informed this newspaper.

CALLS HER GOAT.

Miss Berry is of the opinion that Mrs. Hayes is not richer through the swindle. She said:

"I believe Mrs. Hayes is being made the 'goat' in this expose. She is a remarkable woman, but I think this is one case where others, smarter than she, used her.

"The name of the man behind her acts will be disclosed soon, I think. I don't know who it may be. Mr. Tobey's action in complaining that he was fooled seems strange to us in the company, because he must have known Mr. Schwab's actual position in the organization.

"We looked upon Mr. Schwab as the undisclosed principal and were told never to mention his name. Mr. Tobey we looked on as a backer of Mrs. Hayes. William Frye White was legal adviser.

"Mrs. Hayes was called into the Chatham project when Edward R. Grabow, of the New Ocean House at

SAY NOTES SIGNED BY SCHWAB

Counsel for Mrs. Hayes Presents Claim That the Steel King's Signature Is Genuine

New York, May 11.—New mystery appeared today in the Hayes-Schwab forgery case.

Legal papers served upon Charles M. Schwab, steel millionaire, it was learned, contend that the signature on the $25,000 note which was the basis of the indictment of Mrs. Myrtle B. Hayes of Boston, was not a forged signature.

If this is true, an entirely new angle is presented. If Schwab really signed his name as indorser of the $25,000 note, did he also sign his name to the rest of the $305,000 in notes used to finance the construction of the Hotel Chatham in Boston?

The contention that the signature of Schwab is not a forgery is made in the face of a statement by Schwab before the grand jury, in which he denied it was his signature and testified Mrs. Hayes had used his name without authority in the matter of the note and in other instances.

BAFFLES EXPERTS.

A comparison of a signature known to be Schwab's and the Schwab signature on the disputed note has been made by three handwriting experts. Not one of the three, after a most painstaking comparison, could testify that the signature on the note was a forgery.

The indictment of Mrs. Hayes is undoubtedly responsible for the fact, as announced today, that the American Bond & Mortgage Company has decided not to take a $2,700,000 mortgage and help finance the Chatham venture. Chatham, Inc., it is stated, issued interim certificates for about $500,000 in anticipation of forthcoming bond issues.

These certificates were to be ex-

High Court to Rule on Men's Bare Legs in the Movies

New York, May 11.—Whether a man's bare legs may be seen in the films in New York city will be passed on by the Supreme Court.

The Pathe Exchange, Inc., has obtained a writ of certiorari requiring the Motion Picture Commission to file for review a report on a picture called "Good Riddance."

The banned scene depicts a dog chewing a man's trousers until a section of his leg is bared. The reason for striking it out is that it would "tend to incite crime."

Other deletions: A scene showing a dog being thrown from an airplane and the caption, "Take him up seven miles and throw him out—after that he's his own boss."

CHELSEA MAN FREED OF ASSAULT CHARGE

The charge of attempted assault, preferred by Anna Margolis of No. 7 Rexford place, Lynn, against Samuel Alpert of Chelsea was dismissed today by Trial Justice Walter H. Southwick in Nahant Court.

The girl, who caused the arrest of Alpert on Shore drive, told a different story today. She is engaged to an uncle of Alpert's, who was with them in an automobile when the trouble occurred. Miss Margolis and her fiance quarreled, and the man got out of the machine. Alpert's attempts to act as peacemaker resulted in his arrest.

ANOTHER WIN FOR OUIMET

Boston Golfer Defeats Tolley in Sixth Round and Meets Wethered in Semi-Finals

BRITISH GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.
Sixth Round.

Ouimet, American, defeated Tolley, Great Britain, 4 up and 3 to play.

Grant, American, defeated Humphries, Great Britain, 3 up and 2 to play.

Harris, Great Britain, defeated MacKenzie, Great Britain, 1 up.

Wethered, Great Britain, defeated Drew, Great Britain, 2 up.

By ROBERT E. HARLOW,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Deal, Eng., May 11.—Francis Ouimet of Boston, lone American within the enemy's lines, went on to the semi-final round of the British amateur golf championship today by defeating Cyril Tolley, British champion of another year, 4 up and 3 to play, in the sixth round.

It was a case of Ouimet, the technician, versus Tolley, the indomitable, and the shot-maker prevailed over the match-player in a manner that left no doubt as to which was the better golfer.

Only three men now remain between the Boston ace and the first

DENOUNCE FASCISTI IN MURDER

Assassination of Vorowski Is Attributed to the Swiss Foes of Communism

Basel, May 11 (By the Associated Press).—The executive committee of the Swiss Communist party has called upon all workers, regardless of political affiliation, to join in a great demonstration of protest against the assassination of Vorowsky. The call characterizes the murder as "the signal for Fascist terrorism in Switzerland."

Paris, May 11.—Fascistism produced two violent outbursts today—one in France and one in Switzerland.

Vorowsky, chief of the Soviet delegation watching the interests of Russia at the Lausanne Near East conference, was shot and killed by a Swiss "Fascist" while at his dinner.

In Toulouse, Joseph Caillaux was set on by sixty French Royalists and was terribly beaten. Today he lies dangerously wounded at a hospital.

2 MORE WOUNDED.

At Lausanne, M. Ahrens, secretary of the Russian delegation, and another member of the same delegation, were wounded by the fusillade which killed Vorowsky. Both are in a serious condition.

The assassin, whose name is Conradi, returned from Russia two months ago. He is said to have written in a letter that he wanted to kill Vorowsky because his father and uncle had died of hunger and torture. He fought against Germany until 1917. He had no accomplices.

LASHED BY BRUTAL BOSS

Paul Revere White Describes Horrors of Peonage in Florida

Taunton, May 11.—Twenty-year-old Paul Revere White, named for one of America's heroes of freedom and justice, tells his own story today of fearful flogging and other inhuman treatment he received in a prison camp in Florida.

His body is scarred and his soul is seared by his frightful experiences with the dark side of life in Florida.

His body is scarred and his soul is seared by his frightful experiences with the dark side of life in Florida.

Young White, son of Mrs. Mildred F. White, a widow, was sent to the prison camp of State Senator T. J. Knabb in MacClenny, Florida, where turpentine is produced by convict labor.

While seeking work in Florida he was arrested for vagrancy. Because he could not do as much work in the camp as negro convicts could this is what happened to him:

"I was given five licks with the eight-pound leather strap. Each

EXTRA! EXTRA!

OUIMET BEATEN IN SEMI-FINALS

Deal, England, May 11.—Francis Ouimet, of Boston after winning his sixth round of the British Amateur Golf Championship by defeating Cyril Tolley this morning, was defeated in the semi-finals this afternoon by Roger Wethered, 4 up and 3 to play.

HIGH COST HOLDS UP $5,000,000 HOTEL

New York, May 11.—Added today to the list of building projects abandoned because of the high cost of construction was a $5,000,000 Brooklyn hotel. A special committee of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, considering plans for financing the deal, decided to defer action until a 1,000 room hostelry could be erected for a fair price.

CLOTHING WORKERS IN CHICAGO GET RAISE

Chicago, May 11.—A 10 per cent. wage increase for all workers now earning $30 or less per week, and a flat increase of $3 for all those earning more than $30, was announced today by the arbitration board in the wage dispute between employers and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America. The decision is retroactive to May 1. An "unemployment insurance" fund also is provided for.

LAUSANNE ASSASSIN CAUGHT

Ahrens today described the shooting, saying:

"When we sat down to dinner we noticed an elegantly dressed young man at a table near us. He was drinking cognac continuously and when he got up I saw the muzzle of his revolver pointed at Vorowsky's back. He pulled the trigger and Vorowsky was killed instantanaously.

AVENGED, ASSASSIN SAYS.

"I was shot in the leg and when I reached for my revolver I fainted and fell over Zaworski's body."

Eyewitnesses declared that after the shooting Conradi walked calmly to the hotel corridor smoking a cigarette. There he asked if Vorowsky was dead and when told that he was he said:

"I have avenged my father and uncle."

DROWNING VICTIM DECLARED SUICIDE

Putnam, Ct., May 11.—The sudden disappearance of Benn Kershaw, thirty-eight years old and married, of this town, on April 29, was cleared up when his body was found by his wife in Alexander Lake. Coroner Arthur G. Bill pronounced the death suicidal. Kershaw was canoeing on the day of his disappearance. Since that his wife had been patrolling the lake daily.

Mellon Issues Primer on 'Dry' Ship Law

Washington, May 11.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has issued this "primer" on the "dry" ship decision by the Supreme Court:

1. "Transportation" means any real carrying about.
2. "Importation" means any actual bringing in from outside the country.
3. "Territory" means the regional areas of land and adjacent dominion and control as a sovereign power.
4. American vessels on the high seas are not territory within this meaning.
5. Both American and foreign vessels within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States are subject to the eighteenth amendment and the national prohibition act.

HUNT FOR MISSING GIRLS, 16, IN LYNN

Catherine A. Sheehan, 16 years old, of No. 41 Essex street, Charlestown, left home April 3. Her mother received a letter from her postmarked Lynn, in which Mrs. Sheehan was told she would never see her daughter again.

At the request of the Boston authorities the Lynn police began a search of lodging houses and factories. The Sheehan girl is described as being five feet tall, weight 120 pounds, mdium complexion, light brown hair, hazel blue eyes, upper front tooth broken. When she left home the girl wore a black and white skirt, white shirtwaist, brown coat, with a black collar.

A Medford girl, 16 years old, Ellio Coe, who is believed o be hanging about the grounds where a carnival show is holding forth, is also being hunted.

BEATEN FOR NOT HAVING SON, WIFE SAYS

Because she bore him a daughter instead of a son her husband told her that he would not be seen walking with her and, to vent his feelings, he beat her, declared Mrs. Venice A. Florence of Framingham in her uncontested suit for divorce from Earl Florence to Chief Justice Perley Hall in East Cambridge Divorce Court, and she was granted a decree nisi and custody of her child.

Mrs. Louise J. Jenkins of Cambridge was granted a decree nisi in her suit against Harold Jenkins on the ground of unfaithfulness. She alleged that he was already married to another woman for which he is now serving a term in jail.

Mrs. Delphine Dam of Somerville told the court that her husband, Charles O. Dam of Medford, seldom worked and that he frequently used physical violence on her. She was granted a decree nisi.

Arthur F. Shea of No. 691 Blue Hill avenue, Dorchester, claimed that he was married to his wife, Madeline T. Shea under threats from her father, and that they never lived together as man and wife. Justice Hall said that he would take this case under advisement and determine whether it would be proper to grant a divorce or an annullment.

CONDEMN CRITICISM OF REV. B. E. FOSDICK

Philadelphia, May 11.—Twenty-three ministers and eight elders of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, in a letter to the Presbyterian General Assembly have disapproved the action of the Philadelphia Presbytery in objecting to the preaching of Rev. Barry Emerson Fosdick of New York, it became known today.

SHOOTS GIRL OF 17 AND DIES FOR LOVE

N. J., May 11.—Miss Frances Dwyer, 17, shot three times by Arthur Rausch, 20, was in a serious condition in a hospital here today. Rausch shot and killed himself. The girl, police said, had rejected his offer of marriage.

"It is useless for you to interfere between Frances and me. I intend to marry her, and if I can't I'll take her to heaven with me."

ROB SUMMER HOME OF LIEUT.-GOV. FULLER

Little Boar's Head, N. H., May 11.—The home of Lieutenant-Governor Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts was broken into and robbed of thousands of dollars worth of household furnishings and clothing. The exact amount has not been estimated as the Lieutenant-Governor is still in New York.

The house is located in the rear of the sumptuous Fuller Summer mansion, and was used by him and his family during his visits here last Winter.

A valuable combination clock and barometer were among the articles taken.

PANAMA DEMANDS CANAL BRIDGES

Panama, May 11 (By the Associated Press.)—In a memorandum to Secretary of War Weeks, the Government of Panama asserts that as the canal has been completed the United States should defnitely declare it now holds all land necessary for protection of the waterway, thereby affording a safeguard against expropriation which might eventually result in the absorption of the entire Republic.

It is necessary, the communication sets forth, that Panama should have means of crossing the canal without hindrance, thus facilitating communication between the two sections of the Republic. Inasmuch as certain Panama roads may be used by the American government for strategical purposes, the note says the bridges on such highways should be of heavy construction and suggests that the United States pay for such improvements.

DEBS HERE, TALKS OF SACCO CASE

Eugene V. Debs

Eugene V. Debs, five times Socialist candidate for President, doesn't want to be Chief Executive now, but he is interested in the Sacco-Vanzetti case and will try to see both of these men on his present visit here. He admires Charles Garland of April Farm, but denies he has any intention of visiting the farm.

Debs will lecture on Socialism in the Grand Opera House tonight. He is traveling about the country to recruit members for his party.

The Socialist leader thinks Nikola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti are victims of mistaken identity. He says he thinks they were convicted of murder because of prejudice aroused by their activities in behalf of the masses. "Truth will triumph," he declares, "and in time both will be proven innocent."

PROMOTES FIREMAN IN SOMERVILLE

Mayor John M. Webster of Somerville today announced the appointment of hoseman William F. Brady of Engine 1 to succeed Lieutenant Frank L. Draper who retires May 20. Six world war veterans were appointed to the fire and police departments. The fire department appointees are Frank A. Burley, No. 117 Perkins street; Joseph F. Geraghty, No. 380 Washington street; and John P. N. Smith, resently of Somerville but now residing in Charlestown. The police appointees, reserve officers, are Joseph P. Blake, No. 27 Durham street; Frank A. Silva, Jr., No. 96 Albion street, and John J. Smith, No. 92 Glen street.

Telegraph Briefs

Mansfeld, O.—Admitting a division in the ranks of the Republican party, but declaring "the estate of our Democratic adversaries is no better," Postmaster General New, in an address here asserted that both parties are suffering from "lack of cohesion."

Harrisburg—Governor Pinchot signed a bill providing for old-age pensions. The act provides that applicants must be at least 70 years old and imposes other qualifications. Pensions are limited to $1 a day. Persons owning property worth more than $3,000 are not eligible.

Montreal—The Canadian Pacific Railway's new land colonizing policy affecting about 30,000 farmers in Canada having contracts with the company, provides for spreading their indebtedness over a period of thirty-four years.

$100 FINE FOR DISPLAY OF DAYLIGHT TIME

Hartford, Ct., May 11.—The public display of any but standard time is forbidden under a penalty of $100 fine, by the terms of a bill passed in concurrence in the Senate.

The bill is the second one dealing with the question of daylight saving time introduced this session, the first one having been defeated in the Senate after the House had passed it. The Senate passed the present one by 19 to 12. It will now go to the Governor, who is expected to sign it, because of his publicly announced objections to the chan of clocks in accordance with mer time.

14 Million More Years
Trouble Ahead
Henry Ford Well Fixed

By Arthur Brisbane

A SCIENTIST declares that preventive medicine, within thirty years will add fourteen years to the average American life, raising that average from fifty-five to sixty-nine. Do you realize how that would increase wealth and efficiency? For a man taught and trained, the years from fifty-five to sixty-nine should be life's best years.

ADDING FOURTEEN life years to the average would add fourteen hundred million years of mature human effort to every generation. What would that be worth to the nation? What would it be worth to a railroad if it could add fourteen years to the working life of every locomotive.

TROUBLE IS COMING. England has sent a battleship to prevent Russia seizing English fishing boats outside the three-mile limit. Russia might send some T. N. T.-carrying fliers to meet that battleship, and that would start something serious. If that should happen, Europe would like very much to have United States men and money on tap through a League of Nations membership or through World Court decisions as to our duties and responsibilities.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, analyzing Henry Ford's business, puts his net profit on each car at $55. On his present output, 6,000 cars per day, that would be ninety-nine millions profit in a year of 300 working days. Add nineteen millions annual profits on parts, plus fifteen millions profit from other sources, and you see that Mr. Ford is unusually well fixed. The moral is, to beat your competitors, give value.

FIRES COST this country every year five hundred million dollars and 150,000 lives. Eighty in 100 of the dollars and lives are lost needlessly. The National Protection Association meeting in Chicago gives figures. The biggest trouble resides in our system of fire insurance. Extortionate rates make the companies indifferent to fires. Insurance methods encourage carelessness among owners, and promote arson among criminals. But that is nobody's business. Insurance should be government business, and there should be no insurance for fire traps in which families are housed. Refuse insurance and owners will take precautions.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND, the noble dog, makes a mistake sometimes. Harry Murch, age sixteen, saw a faithful dog keeping watch, apparently, near a dead dog's body. Interested, the youth drew near, and the live dog bit him in the leg, thinking he meant to steal the dead dog. The attitude of animals toward death in their own tribe differs greatly. A live horse has intense fear of a dead horse. A live chicken treats its dead comrade as though it were alive, clucks cheerfully, notices no change. Man's attitude toward dead in his tribe, also varies. Some enjoy funerals, some fear them, all share to some extent the horse's dread of a body with its life gone.

AN ABLE FACTOR upsets many theories, including the idea that a marvelous memory is a sign of healthy intellect. On the contrary, ability to forget trivialities and devote the mind to important things only is the sign of health as life advances. Too much attention to detail, especially to petty economics, not necessary, is also a bad sign, so the medical authority of the London Times tells you.

RECENT COLD weather is due to cold air accumulated in the Arctic regions, finally breaking through and flooding the United States, something like a flood after an ice gorge, so the weather man tells you. It is not the sun getting out of order, for which you may be thankful. The slightest trouble with our sun, and this earth would be frozen, the oceans solid ice.

CHINA REBUKED, is told she has no right to call herself a republic if she cannot control her brigands. She bows politely, and asks why we, old republic that we are, do not control our lynching parties. Then we bow politely and change the subject.

GIRL, 16, FOILED IN ELOPEMENT, WEDS

Fitchburg, May 11. — Constance Eleine Aulton, sixteen-year-old high school pupil, and her thirty-year-old sweetheart, Milton A. Walker, have leaped the last of the many barriers to their romance, which included parental objection and a thwarted elopement.

The couple were married here and the bride's mother acknowledged defeat by tendering them a reception at her home, No. 36 Crane street.

After a few meetings several months ago, the man and the girl eloped to Cleveland. Her mother notified the police of that city, who stopped the planned marriage, sent Walker back to Fitchburg and held the girl until she arrived there.

ASQUITH ENRAGED AT SAAR DECREE

London, May 11.—Former Premier Asquith, in the House of Commons, trembling with indignation, denounced as infamous the decree recently promulgated by the Saar commission under which anyone criticizing the League of Nations, the Treaty of Versailles, or the decisions of the commissions, is liable to five years' imprisonment or a 10,000 francs fine.

Always the Same Delightful Flavor

If you have Ferris Ham fairly frequently at your table, you may wonder how the flavor can always be precisely the same. You may wonder why the meat is always so firm and tender and literally flowing with the same delightful juices.

The secret lies in our half-century old process—our "Ten" Factors of Flavor", which have never changed for over sixty years. This process is so exacting and so carefully supervised by Ferris executives that Ferris Hams simply cannot help being gems of flavor and nutrition.

The next Ferris Ham you buy will be exactly as delicious as the last.

RELEASE OF CAPTIVES IS NEAR

American Takes Part in Move to Free Prisoners Held by Chinese Band

By the Associated Press.

Tsinanfu, May 11. — Dr. Heimberger of the Shantung Christian University has left for Lincheng, guaranteed safe conduct to the mountain strongholds of the Chinese bandits, where he will be conducted to the foreign captives who were taken from the Peking express train last Sunday.

All the captives were reported today to be alive, but some of them, including J. B. Powell, an American newspaper man, were said to be ill.

Dr. Heimberger's mission was arranged by American Consul Davis.

American to Aid in Freeing Bandit Captives

By the Associated Press.

Peking, May 11.—At present hopes of obtaining freedom for the captives held by the Suchow train bandits seems to lie in the efforts of Roy Anderson, an American of long experience in Chinese political affairs and a personal confidant of several important military leaders.

He has announced he will visit the brigands in their stronghold at Paotuku and attempt to negotiate with them. He was one of the first on the scene after the hold-up of the Shang-Hai-Peking express and since then has been counselling and co-operating with the American, British and French consuls at Lincheng.

Release of Prisoners Expected Shortly

Shanghai, May 11.—United States Minister Jacob Gould Schurman, who returned after a personal investigation of conditions at the scene of the holdup of the Shanghai-Peking express, announced that he expected the early release of all of the prisoners.

Lucy Aldrich

Masters Roland Pinger, Jr., and Robert Allen, Jr., sons of Majors Pinger and Allen, of the United States army, are the only captives who have been released so far.

"It is not a question of armed intervention at the present time," Minister Schurman declared.

"Armed intervention would be unwise now, as it would deprive the captives of all chances of freedom through the negotiations which are now pending.

"I believe they will be released as soon as the ransom is paid.

"Significant of the courage and attitude of the victims was the act of Miss Aldrich, who gave her hat to J. B. Powell, Peking editor, in order to save his head from the burning sun which alternated with the rain and hail.

"Dr. Carruthers left Wednesday night for the mountain zone in which the brigands are hiding with their risoners. He carried medical supplies and food and is prepared to give any needed medical or surgical attention to those who are held."

RENO OFFICERS WEEP AS TEAR GAS FLOWS

Reno, Nev., May 11. — Reno's Mayor, Chief of Police, Police Judge and a host of lesser city officials scurried to the streets in a driving rainstorm recently when a tear bomb exploded in the office of the chief of police. The bomb was one of many ready for use against bootleggers and entrenched criminals.

SCENE OF WESTBORO HOLDUP

GUNS TAKEN FROM STITCHER

Auto bandits seized the $3,000 payroll at the Westboro State Hospital and two of the four are sought in Boston. Joseph Stitcher of Arizona, a former employe (inset above), is under arrest and has been identified as one of the quartet. Also arrested is Benjamin Maxwell, colored, of Cambridge, accused as driver of the bandit car. The two who escaped seized a second car and braved police bullets after the first auto broke down.

IRENE FENWICK TO WED LIONEL BARRYMORE

New York, May 11.—With the ink recording her divorce hardly dry, the theatrical world was given another thrill today when it became known that Irene Fenwick, until recently Mrs. James F. O'Brien, is to become Mrs. Lionel Barrymore.

Irene Fenwick

This is not the first time that the names of Miss Fenwick and Barrymore have been linked, but in the past, the fact that her husband was still her legal mate tempered the rumors and caused them to die natural deaths. This time there are no husbands to hold up the plans.

Miss Fenwick's husband was a New York broker and she had him divorced after having him trailed by private detectives.

WOMEN PLAN FIGHT FOR EQUAL RIGHTS

Washington, May 11.—America's womanhood today is planning a new nation-wide campaign for additional freedom through the enactment of a twentieth amendment to the constitution. The fight for enactment of the amendment will be outlined at a national convention to be held July 20 and 21 in Seneca Falls, N. Y. A tentative draft of the amendment reads:

"No distinction between the rights of men and women shall exist in the United States or any place subject to its jurisdiction."

'PIGGLY WIGGLY' IN FIST FIGHT AT MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tenn., May 11.—Clarence Saunders, president of the Piggly Wiggly Stores, Inc., with home headquarters in this city, emerged from a conference room in the Chamber of Commerce Building with his face bruised, his collar torn and minus his usual smile, following a meeting with several members of the pool whom he was recently associated with in his stock market transactions.

"Piggly Wiggly," as he is best known in this city, admitted to newspaper men that he had engaged in a fight with one of the men attending the conference, but said the differences had been satisfactorily adjusted.

The conference was called following a statement that Mr. Saunders had made relating to the moving of the home headquarters of Piggly Wiggly to some other city in this State. O. E. Bailey, president of the Chamber of Commerce, announced shortly after the Saunders statement regarding the removal of headquarters, that the latter organization would discontinue its efforts to obtain subscriptions to Piggly Wiggly in this city.

SAVES 2 STUDENTS FROM DROWNING

Two Boston College students canoeing on the Charles river at Riverside were saved from drowning when their canoe capsized opposite Norumbega Park by the quick action of Sergeant William Chaisson and Patrolman John Austin of the Metropolitan Park police station. Their names were withheld.

HUNT HOSPITAL BANDITS IN BOSTON

Boston's underworld is being searched by police for two bandits, one of them an alleged gunman, who escaped in a stolen automobile after robbing the Westboro State Hospital of a $3,000 payroll.

The bandits evaded police at Westboro, and engaged in a running gun fight with Wellesley police as they raced through the town on their way to Boston, where it is believed they abandoned their car and sought shelter with friends.

Patrolman Wright

They are believed to have about $2,500 of the stolen payroll with them. One of the escaped holdup men is said to be John T. Shirley, who is described as a Western "bad man."

Benjamin Maxwell, colored, of Fayerweather street, Cambridge, and Joseph Stitcher of Wrentham were arrested by Framingham police.

Maxwell, the police say, drove the bandit car to the hospital. Stitcher was identified as the gang's "outside man." Employes of the hospital declare they saw him loitering in the vicinity of the hospital two hours before the robbery.

John Shirley, who worked at the hospital last February and is wanted as the leader of the bandits, said then that he came from Nogales, Ariz.

Recognizing him as a former employe when he called at the hospital yesterday and asked for mail, Miss Aldrich turned from the pay desk to the mail box. He snatched the payroll, dashed out and leaping into the auto sped away with his confederates.

"RAIDING PARSON" FACES INDICTMENT

Atlantic City, N. J., May 11.—True bills were found by the Atlantic County Grand Jury against Rev John B. Adams, Federal prohibition agent, known as the "raiding parson," and two city detectives on charges by David Feldman of entry with intent to rob and assault in connection with a raid.

BRITAIN TELLS GERMANS TO "TRY AGAIN"

London, May 11 (By the Associated Press).—Brevity and incisiveness are the features of great Britain's newest note to Germany on the reparations question. The document, consisting of two typewritten pages, avoids technical details, points out in simple language the inadequacy, from the British viewpoint, of Germany's proposals, and urges her to try again.

BRITISH TRAWLER FREED BY RUSSIA

Hull, England, May 11 (By the Associated Press).—The owners of the trawler James Johnson, seizure of which recently occasioned a protest from Great Britain to the Russian Soviet government, have received a telegram from the skipper, Neilsen, stating that he has been released by the Bolsheviki and is now at a Norwegian port, expecting to sail homeward.

Moscow, May 11.—Foreign Minister George Tchitcherin and Foreign Trade Minister Leonid Krassin were reported today to be urging a moderate reply to the British ultimatum demanding redress for alleged hostile acts against British subjects and British property. They are anxious to avert an open breach with Great Britain.

The British note has just been published here in the Communist newspapers. It aroused widespread interest.

ZEPPELIN LINE FROM HUB PLANNED

New Orleans, La., May 11.—Airships of the Zeppelin type are to be operated between Boston and New Orleans, via New York and between New Orleans and San Diego, Cal., according to plans now being made by the Commercial Airways of America Company, Rear Admiral W. F. Fullam, U. S. N., announced. Other plans contemplated include regular schedules to Cuba, Mexico, Central America and the Canal Zone.

PERSECUTED FAMILY HIDDEN

Anne Morgan Aids in Removal From New York to Escape Vengeance

New York, May 11.—Salvatore Varotta, whose five-year-old son was killed by kidnapers in June, 1921, has been secretly removed from his home in New York with his wife and four children to escape members of the Black Hand who had sworn to kill them.

Their flight was arranged and carried out by the police after months of planning.

A son, whose face had been disfigured in an accident, underwent several skin-grafting operations before the flight so that the family would not easily be recognized.

Miss Anne Morgan and other society women interested themselves in the case.

SEES DANGER FOR U. S. IN CHESTER DEAL

Atlanta, Ga., May 11.—The agreement by the Turkish government at Angora with American capitalists, known as the Chester Concession, was "one of the most disastrous things for the Near East that has ever happened," declared Mrs. J. W. Emrich, national director of women's organizations for Near East Relief, before the council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Emrich, who recently returned from Constantinople, said the name "American" in Turkey stood for an agency interested in nothing but relief and humanitarian work. She said the Chester deal would endanger America's prestige.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FARM LEASED TO FARRAR

Northampton, N. H., May 11. — Geraldine Farrar, famous prima donna, has leased a farm near here for a term of two years to seek quiet and seclusion to recuperate from the nervous strain of her court proceedings in New York where she is bringing suit for divorce against Lou Tellegen actor.

The farm is owned by A. W. Strong, a half-brother to Harry K. Thaw, and is located a short distance from Little Boar's Head.

TRAIN HITS MILK WAGON; ONE KILLED

New York, May 11.—One man was killed, another fatally injured, when a Long Island Railroad commuters' train crashed into a milk wagon in Flushing, early today. Philip Kennedy, chauffeur of the truck, was killed and John Weigman, helper, suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries and may die. Weigman was caught under the front car and carried half a block before the train stopped. Firemen took him from under the wheels.

FIGHT FATAL OIL FIRE WITH STEAM CLOUDS

Corsicana, Tex., May 11.—The flaming oil well eleven miles west of here, which claimed at least fifteen lives when a spark fired the gushing oil two days ago, was still beyond control today. Twenty boilers were set up to furnish steam to quench the flames.

The gusher is being fed by constant flow of gas and oil and is emitting a snakelike tongue of flames plainly visible for fifty miles. Oil from the burning well is spraying a four-acre area.

RESCUE AGED WOMAN IN PROVIDENCE FIRE

Providence, May 11.—Two patrolmen—W. J. San Souci and W. F. Ergley—carried Mrs. Bridget Di Grazia, eighty, and her niece, May Chaucey, to safety when flames threatened their bed chambers in the three-tenement house at No. 90 Spruce street early today. Neither woman suffered except from shock. The fire destroyed the roof and top floor of the building.

TAUNTON BOY SCARRED FOR LIFE BY FLOGGINGS

SUBJECTED DAILY TO LASHING

blow knocked me to the ground. Each blow inflicted a cut on my back between the two shoulder blades. Blood was drawn at every blow. The strap was so wielded with a twist that the sharp edge would cut into the flesh."

Investigation into the White case has brought indictment of John Roddenbury, camp whipping boss, who is called a human fiend by White. A Florida legislative committee is investigating.

"They put me scraping gum from the faces of the pine trees. I had to drag a scrape box from tree to tree, with which I caught the gum. The box is on two runners and very heavy.

BEATEN THIRD DAY.

"I had to pull the box through swamps, bogs, branches, creeks that were slimy with mud knee deep, through waist-deep water, over submerged logs. Because I could not do as much work as the negro convicts, I was beaten the third day."

After describing the beating and the strap, as quoted, White went on:

"The next two weeks I was beaten almost every day, although I was doing the best I could. Every time the officer beat me and a log was in sight he would have me get part way across it with my legs stretched out behind it.

"Then he would stand on one side and beat me. Even when I was so weak I could hardly hobble around, I was beaten just the same.

"Sometimes I was kicked and hit in the face. I was given ten to twelve blows at a time. After a week my feet began to get bad. Sores came from my ankles down to my toes from water poison.

"I told the captain. He told me he didn't have time to bother with a sick convict, and that, when a convict got in too bad shape to work, he always ended up in the Evergreen cemetery back of the stockade.

"The guard told me that he wanted me to rot away so he could bury me where the whites and negroes are buried side by side."

15 U. S. EXPERTS ORDERED TO HUB

Fifteen attaches of the United States Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce will attend the All New England Foreign Trade Convention, under auspices of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and co-operating organizations in Boston, next Thursday and Friday. This is the largest number ever sent by the government to any such gathering.

WOUNDED PASTOR RESUMES PULPIT

After being wounded four times while serving in the Canadian forces during the World War, and having now fully recovered, Rev. Thomas Turrell has taken charge of the Second Unitarian Church, Somerville. In addition to his church duties he is studying philosophy at Tufts College.

Faces New Probe as Perjurer

EVAN FONTAINE

New City, N. Y., May 11.—Miss Evan Burrowes Fontaine, dancer, and her mother, today again face a perjury charge as a result of the grand jury of Rockland County, reopening consideration of the allegations.

Indictments on the same charge found by a previous grand jury were recently dismissed in the Rockland County Supreme Court for lack of sufficient evidence.

The accusations grew out of allegations made by Miss Fontaine that Cornelius Vanderbilt "Sonny" Whitney had promised to marry her and was the father of her son. Whitney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, was recently married in Paris.

Six witnesses were examined by the grand jury. George B. Nicholson, of Texas, brother-in-law of Sterling Adair, Miss Fontaine's husband, now dead, was regarded as the most important by the county authorities.

Hotel employes from different cities also were examined to show, it was said, that Miss Fontaine and Adair had lived together as man and wife after their marriage.

WOMEN OPPOSE WORLD COURT PLAN

Atlanta, May 11.—President Harding's proposal that the United States join the International Court of the League of Nations was voted down by the annual convention of the general federation of women's clubs. While practically all the women agreed that they were heart and soul for the prevention of future wars, many declared they "hesitated to form entangling alliances."

SUGAR PRICE SHOWS SLIGHT REDUCTION

Women's boycott on sugar is apparently having its effect in the markets, for the price has fallen off a cent a pound in bulk and one-half cent in packages.

Vegetables are comparatively high. New Jersey asparagus ranges from 40 to 50 cents. Lettuce is 10 to 15 cents a head, cucumbers are 10 and 15 cents.

Spinach and dandelion greens range from 20 to 30 cents a peck. Small white turnips in bunches are 10 cents. New bunch carrots are 10 cents and bunch beets are two for 25 cents. New hard squash from the South is 10 cents a pound whole. Radishes are 8 cents a bunch, celery 25 cents.

Sweet potatoes are four pounds for 25 cents. Old potatoes are 35 to 45 cents a peck. Strawberries are 30 to 40 cents.

Letter Shows How Sage Dunned His Debtor for Dime

An old resident of Greenwich, Ct., is the proud possessor of a genuine letter of about half a dozen lines sent him by the late Russell Sage. The possessor is an old Wall Street veteran to whom Mr. Sage, in a spirit of generosity, lent some money when the former was hard up. The letter in question reads:

Dear Sir:

At the elevated station a week ago, I let you have 10 cents. You wanted to get uptown you said. I should think by this time you had got back.

I mention the matter not because I want to dun you, but I like to see folks keep their word, whether it's a big or a little thing, and a little thing is a big thing when it makes you break a promise.

BANDIT BEATS GIRL AND GETS POCKETBOOK

Nashua, N. H., May 11.—An assault and robbery of Miss Annie Fitzpatrick, No. 68 Bowers street, took place in Auburn street, in one of the most thickly populated districts.

Miss Fitzpatrick was on her way home. As she turned into Auburn street, she was struck from behind and thrown to the ground and after a struggle the footpad made off with her handbag which, however, contained nothing of value.

Mrs. Clara E. Lapham heard the girl's screams, and took her to her house, then called the police. Miss Fitzpatrick was unable to give any description of her assailant.

Dahlia Blossoms Despite Cold in Springfield

Springfield, May 11.—Snow flurries and a sharp hail storm astonished the citizens about noon here, while the weather was so cold that Winter overcoats were the rule on the streets.

And at the same time a dahlia bulb, owned by Clarence Wilder of Dawson street, blossomed, two months ahead of the earliest bloom Mr. Wilder has ever had before in twenty years of dahlia growing.

BEAUTY SUING MERRILL NEAR COLLAPSE

Miss Dorothy Lillian Brooker, Irish beauty, who has started a $20,000 breach of promise action against Charles A. Merrill, Boston newspaperman, is on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

Miss D. L. Brooker

She has been under the care of a physician at her room at the Copley-Plaza Hotel for the past two days, and has a nurse in attendance.

Today her first cousin, Colonel Robert Linthucen, who has been in New York for some time past, came on to Boston and took charge of the affairs of Miss Brooker. A cable was also received from Ireland from Miss Brooker's family informing her that one of her brothers and an uncle have started for Boston to assist her. Miss Brooker cabled last Sunday for aid from her brothers.

Colonel Linthucen on his arrival disclosed the fact that Miss Brooker's mother was the former Lady Constance Hefferman. Lady Constance's husband is a colonel in the Iniskilling Fusilers.

Colonel Linthuceen stated that he will make an attempt to have the suit brought about for an immediate trial.

ROPE PUTS END TO IMOGENE'S TRAVELS

Imogene is cursed with fatal curiosity.

She is not content to blush unseen in the Price barn and does not believe a woman's place is in the home.

Early today Imogene became imbued with a desire to know what was going on out in the world. To think was to act.

Forth she went into the highways and byways, roaming hither and yon, principally yon, observing, noting and speculating.

About 6:30, as she was rambling along Washington street near the Red bridge, far from her quiet home, she encountered Patrolman Elmer G. Raymond of the Somerville force.

Raymond attempted to enter into converse with Imogene, but she spurned him and fled. Raymond fled after her, but was repulsed. Being a strong minded man, Raymond refused to give up. He halted in his tracks, and with hand pressed to forehead, became lost in thought. Sudenly he had an inspiration. Rushing into a nearby backyard, Raymond secured a length of clothesline, and by rapid sprinting overtook Imogene. He deftly looped the line about her horns, and she was a captive.

HENRY CABOT LODGE 72 YEARS OLD TODAY

Henry Cabot Lodge, senior Senator from Massachusetts, is seventy-two years old. He spent the day at his desk in Washington. Residents of his home town, Nahant, flooded him with felicitations, and he was in receipt of telegrams from all parts of the world. He spent the day quietly, no special observances being held. Senator Lodge expects to return to Nahant around the first of June.

Bankers Elect Morris

Joseph Morris, of the Federal Reserve Bank, was chosen president of the Boston Chapter, American Institute of Banking, at the meeting in Unity House. Other officers elected were Robert P. Holdsworth of the Webster and Atlas National Bank, vice-president; Fred B. Nelson of Commonwealth Trust, second vice-president, and Gardner P. Babson of Old Colony Trust, treasurer.

SEARCH BUFFALO FOR INDIANAPOLIS GIRL

Buffalo, N. Y., May 11.—Police, deputy sheriffs and State troopers are searching for Sadie McGroaty, thirty-six years old, secretary to the park board of the City of Indianapolis. Miss McGroaty's brother-in-law, Herbert S. Riley, also of Indianapolis, told the police that she had left the Western city with $150 and had not been seen or heard of for two weeks or more. On May 3 she registered at the Buffalo Hotel, formerly the Statler. She retired Saturday night and has not been seen since. Her baggage still is at the hotel.

BRAZIL INSURGENTS PLAN NEW ATTACK

Buenos Aires, May 11.—Dispatches from border correspondents say that a brisk engagement has occurred in the outskirts of Santa Anna Do Livramento between the insurgents and the regular troops in the Brazilian State of Rio Grande Do Sul. The State forces are hurriedly entrenching in expectation of an attack. Casualties in the fight were few.

REVERE MAN GETS DRY POST IN PORTO RICO

John T. Barrett of Revere, prominent Spanish War veteran and [illegible] has been appointed prohibition director for Porto Rico, according to dispatches from Washington. Mr. Barrett, whose brother, William Barrett, is the present exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks, was formerly an enforcement agent and for some time has been acting director of the island.

BAG AND $625 LOST BY AUTOMOBILIST

Providence, May 11.—Walter A. Ginkham, in business at No. 643 North Main street, lost $625 from the running board of his motor car on the way to Westminster Bank. He thinks that a Boston bag containing the money and bankbooks was jarred off the running board. The police believe the bag was stolen from the running board while the car was in a traffic jam.

SEVEN FISHERMEN RESCUED AT SEA

Halifax, N. S., May 11.—Carrying seven survivors of disasters to vessels of the French fishing fleet off the Great Banks, the French cruiser Regulus arrived here. Five were of the France and Bretagne, a St. Malo schooner which struck an iceberg. Thirty are believed lost.

Two fishermen of the schooner La Tour du Pin were picked up almost dead from exposure.

SURPRISE IN CASE SPRUNG BY MRS. HAYES' COUNSEL

changed for the bonds when issued. The certificates, sold mostly in New York and Chicago, have been recalled, the company states, and paid in full with interest.

OTHER FORGERIES.

Despite the intimation of Mrs. Hayes' counsel that the Schwab signature to the $25,000 note is genuine, there appears to be evidence that more forgeries of the Steelmaster's name have been unearthed.

Instead of using merely one letter signed "C. M. Schwab," which purported to guarantee the steel magnate's backing of her operations up to the sum of $1,000,000, it has been found that Mrs. Hayes had a whole sheaf of letters signed with his name—all to the same effect and dating back to May 31, 192[illegible] months before she began the latest activity which led to her arrest.

RAISED "GUARANTEE."

Her associate, William C. Tobey, claims that it was these letters which induced him to participate in the Chatham, Inc., bubble. The bankrupt president of that concern, it is now intimated here, however, was not so naively unaware of the flimsy foundation on which she was raising the huge amounts credited to her.

One of these newly-found letters, addressed to Mrs. Hayes, and signed, "C. M. Schwab," states: "C. M. Schwab guarantees up to $1,150,000 to William C. R. Tobey, to cover the obligations of Mrs. M. B. Hayes."

Another letter dated November 14, 1922, says: "I hand you herewith notes endorsed and guaranteed by me, which you may use for temporary financing in the Chatham, Inc. I shall arrange forthwith a trust fund of $1,000,000."

WARNED TO "SECRECY."

Other letters advised Mrs. Hayes and Tobey to keep the transactions entirely in confidence; that the writer, ostensibly Mr. Schwab, was opening an account in a New York bank in the name of the Chatham Securities Company; that Tobey should put on deposit "a sufficient amount to enable Mrs. Hayes to take care of all of the immediate needs," and the writer would guarantee to take up any Chatham, Inc., stock Mrs. Hayes could not dispose of.

Mrs. Hayes today took legal steps to discover what Mr. Schwab told the grand jury that indicted her for forgery in the second degree.

Mrs. Hayes is eager to learn the testimony of all the witnesses who went before the Grand Jury, but she is particularly keen about the story related by Mr. Schwab, who admits that he has known her for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Hayes wishes to check up Mr. Schwab's testimony as to what he said about her dealings and prolonged friendship with him. With that end in view her counsel, Attorney George Gordon Battle, will petition the court for authority to review the Grand Jury minutes.

Lived Modestly in $85 Allston Flat

While lunching and talking of millions with Boston financial powers daily, Mrs. Myrtle B. Hayes was living in an $85 a month apartment at No. 28 Commonwealth terrace, Allston, in a style that caused neighbors to believe the family had a much restricted income.

In fact, tenants of the same apartment wondered at the daily trips of either Mrs. Hayes or her husband, Orville, to a nearby delicatessen from which they would return with paper bags. These contained their day's rations.

This period of the amazing Mrs. Hayes' life was in contrast to luxury during the days after she met Charles M. Schwab, whose name she is accused of forging.

Mrs. Hayes was born somewhere in Missouri. When fifteen her parents moved to Dallas, Tex., where she began as a milliner. Some years later she went to Chicago and obtained a position of buyer for a large department store.

MET SCHWAB ON A LINER

It was while thus employed that her firm sent her to Paris a number of times to study fashions and buy for their trade. One day a chance meeting on deck with Schwab, then just beginning to mount the ladder of success, ripened into a friendship that lasted through twenty-two years.

Romance entered her life when she was twenty. She wed Dr. Albert T. Graf of Los Angeles, but five years later was divorced. Then for a time she operated a dressmaking establishment in New York. This failed.

Shortly after she met Orville H. Hayes, son of a Massachusetts hardware dealer. They had a speedy courtship. Her sister-in-law is reputed to be the wife of a Boston banker and it is said her husband has a small income.

INTERESTED HOTEL MEN.

After unsuccessful attempts to finance hotels in Bath and Portland, Mrs. Hayes went to Worcester, where she lived at the Hotel Bancroft and where she interested W. S. Averill, the proprietor, in the Bostonian Hotel proposition.

It was in August, 1920, when she began to be noticed around Young's Hotel, lunching with Boston financiers and talked convincingly of her project. She talked so well that William H. Sellers, then manager of Young's, resigned his job to go with her. Averill joined them.

MRS. MYRTLE HAYES.

Boston's hotel promoter extraordinary, whose operations rival those of the fictional J. Rufus Wallingford in finance, as she appeared after pleading not guilty to charge of forging the name of Charles M. Schwab to one of seventeen notes for $325,000.

GIRL ASSOCIATE DECLARES MRS. HAYES IS DUPE

Swampscott, and William H. Sellers and others who originated the project, called for help.

"They had been unable to place a mortgage and could not go ahead. Mr. Grabow was also very busy on his other work. Mrs. Hayes did not move first. They called on her and asked her to take hold, as promoter.

PLACED A MORTGAGE.

"Mrs. Hayes placed the mortgage immediately with the American Bond and Mortgage Company, doing business with their representatives, W. H., Moore and his son, Charles E. Moore.

"Mr. Tobey became president of the company. He used to visit Boston occasionally, and Mrs. Hayes spend most of her time outside the office.

The Securities Company, formerly the Construction Investment Company, was formed to handle the stock. None was ever sold because the project struck a snag.

"The mortgage company refused to open the mortgage until Mrs. Hayes put up more money. All the funds, including chiefly proceeds on the notes, in the form of cash and credits, were spent on the land and costruction costs.

"None of the officers ever drew salaries. For the past several weeks I have been paid my salary by wire from Mrs. Hayes. Before that it came in a check, signed by Mr. Bowman, Mrs. Hayes' brother, and the treasurer. The company has no money in the bank now, so a check wouldn't mean anything.

QUITS HER JOB.

"I called up Mrs. Hayes at the Lorraine today and Mr. Bowman told me he thought everything would work out all right, although he said he didn't know just how.

"Mrs. Hayes said there was no information that could be given out on this end which would add to the story, because about everything had been told down in New York.

"I resigned today and will not go to the office on State street. I went to work for Mrs. Hayes when she undertook the Bostonian. I know her as well as anyone.

"What happened to the Bostonian hotel proposition was that we had a contract of sale for which we paid $25,000, but were unable to complete the plans of the hotel in time to place a mortgage before May 10.

"On that date the remainder of the price was to be paid, but not having raised money on a mortgage, we were unable to meet it. We asked for an extension of time, but did not gain it. The promoters lost the $25,000.

"Mrs. Hayes, I am sure, has not got a cent of the money raised on the Chatham notes because, as promoter, she would not be paid until the promotion was completed.

MADE NO COMMENT.

"When she came to Boston last month, I said to her, 'I suppose you know what they're saying of you in Boston.' She said she would like to hear it, and so I told her about the rumors. She made no comment.

"But when her brother, Mr. Bowman, heard of it he laid her out for it. He was then treasurer and office manager and kept all the books. He went to her home and had a set-to with her.

"He told her he had a wife and family to think about and didn't intend to be mixed up in such a deal. He then resigned. The books of the company have been in New York, being gone over by auditors of the mortgage company, and I have been running the office. I suppose Mr. Bowman is still treasurer until a meeting is held.

"Mrs. Hayes is a convincing talker. She can make you believe what she tells you. She was always strictly honest, we believed. She made her way by a long string of introductions, one leading to another, and gaining access to the men she wanted to do business with.

"PUT FOOT IN IT."

"Mr. Schwab put his foot in it, I think, by this publicity. I don't know exactly how, but that is my impression. He has known of Mrs. Hayes' acts ever since he returned from Europe.

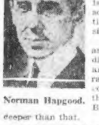
BRITISH THREAT TO RUSSIA ALSO WARNS JAPS

By NORMAN HAPGOOD.
Chief Editor, Hearst's International Magazine.



Norman Hapgood.

Moscow, May 11.—In accordance with the views expressed in my last cable the evidence accumulates that a definite purpose is behind the insolent British ultimatum to Russia.

Lord Curzon's arrogance, his dislike of Russia, and his dislike of radicalism may count for something, but the British policy is deeper than that.

Japan's new friendliness for Russia on the condition of her obtaining oil in Northern Saghalien is one illustration of the economic aspect of the diplomatic game.

It is the same with all the other aspects of the economic struggle of the great Powers for the natural resources of the Near East and Far East. Lord Curzon merely seized a favorable moment when there is excitement over a few details, to show the Lion's claws. These claws will be quiet again if economic matters are arranged to British satisfaction.

Anti-Russian propaganda in the American State Department greatly helps this imperialistic game by making Russia friendless.

One sure result of British and American insolence and unfairness is to strengthen the Russian extremists and weaken the more moderate elements.

SLATTERY COMPANY EMPLOYES DINE

BOY SHOT SELF TO AVOID MARRIAGE

Torrington, Ct., May 11.—Authorities investigating the mysterious death of Fred Carter, nineteen-year-old Kent youth, from a shotgun wound, express the opinion that he committed suicide, because it is alleged, he was goaded by Miss Jennie Baker, thirty-two-old village school teacher, to marry her.

It is said by citizens of the town that Carter often expressed a threat that he would die rather than marry Miss Baker, with whom he had made his home since the death of their foster parents. They were not blood relations.

Miss Baker is said to be a nervous wreck. She will be questioned again by the authorities before the coroner's inquest, which is to occur soon.

Miss Baker's alleged desire to marry young Carter is said to be due to a strange attachment in which she became practically a foster mother to him.

The pair are alleged to have had a Sunday evening quarrel previous to the boy's disappearance with a shotgun.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND OFF WINTHROP

An unidentified body of an elderly woman was recovered from Boston harbor by Winthrop police off Point Shirley, near the Point Shirley Club.

The body was fully dressed, and according to Medical Examiner Magrath, who will perform an autopsy, it had been in the water for several weeks.

Police describe the woman as being five feet five inches tall, weighing 130 pounds, and having unusually small feet. She was clothed in a black hat, black poplin coat and skirt, brown stockings worn over black stockings, and gray woolen gloves.

WOMAN DISCOVERED HANGING IN HENCOOP

Providence, R. I., May 11.—Mrs. Helma Pehrson, wife of Andrew Pehrson of No. 40 King street, Pontiac, committed suicide in a hencoop at her home by hanging. Medical Examiner S. H. Lang of Apponaug pronounced death due to suicide. Her husband discovered the body. Mrs. Pehrson had been in ill health for some time and became despondent. She was a native of Sweden. Her husband is moderator of the Pontiac district.

MAN AND BOY BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOGS

A man and a boy, bitten by vicious dogs in the city, were treated at the City Hospital, where the wounds were cauterized.

Eleven-year-old Kenneth Willet of No. 31 Lexington street, Charlestown, was attacked by a stray dog near his home. After biting the boy on the left forearm the dog escaped.

Walter Callent, thirty-five years old, of No. 111 Quincy street, Roxbury, was bitten several times on the right arm by a dog. The animal attacked Callent while he was going home from work.

Both Callent and the Willet boy will undergo the Pasteur treatment to prevent rabies.

THIEVES RANSACK JUDGE'S RESIDENCES

Blackstone, May 11.—The residence of Judge Francis N. Thayer at Five Corners, East Blackstone, was thoroughly ransacked, and although the drawers in closets and desks were gone through, so far as could be determined by the judge, but three revolvers are missing.

It is believed that the intruders were looking for money.

SWEETHEART OF SLAIN STUDENT CHANGES STORY

Chicago, May 11.—Doris Fuchs, former sweetheart of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University student, who died during the class rush of 1921, changed her story for the second time and told the Grand Jury she was sure Mount had been slain by University hazers.

The testimony of the girl also revealed the romance of a university freshman and a pretty young nursemaid frowned upon by the boy's parents, and causing the boy to give way to melancholy and moroseness.

"When Leighton was first reported missing I was sure he had carried out his threats to me that he would 'do away with himself,'" the girl told the jurymen.

"Now I am convinced that poor Leighton was a victim of Northwestern hazing.

"If he killed himself how could his body have been found buried under five stones, each of which weighed about 100 pounds?"

The girl then told the story of the young love of herself and Mount.

"Although he called me 'dearest' and brought me flowers, we were not lovers," she said. "We were confidants and dear pals until his death."

2 MEN KILLED BY FALLS IN BOSTON

William Brown, forty-eight years old, of Worcester square, South End, succumbed at the hospital after having been picked up in Roxbury, by the police. He had a fractured skull.

Edward Sullivan, sixty years old, address unknown, was picked up in the South End by the police, suffering from injuries to the head. He died at the hospital.

America's First Low Priced English Type Car

Here is a new and brilliant American achievement in economical motoring—the big new Overland Red Bird.

A new delight to the eye! A new thrill to drive! A joy to ride in! A revelation in economy! Reflecting unmistakably the vast experience and resourcefulness of the great Willys-Overland organization.

A car that is unlike Tom's, Dick's and Harry's; distinctive; more beautiful. A car you will own and drive with pride, *and with economy.

A creation in rich, gleaming Mandalay maroon, topped in khaki. A larger, more powerful motor. A much longer wheelbase, a roomier body, and the fleet lines of a revenue cutter. Glistening nickeled radiator, head-lamp rims, windshield stanchions, scuff plates, door handles and back curtain frame. First quality Fisk cord tires. A windshield wiper, bumpers front and rear—everything!

Examine the new Overland Red Bird in our show room. Judge for yourself how precisely Overland again has sensed and gratified the ideal of American families who seek distinction without extravagance.

WOMAN CARPET WEAVER BANK DIRECTOR

Mrs. Sarah A. Conboy, well known in Boston and Massachusetts labor circles, New York State's first woman bank director, would have it remembered that she's a good carpet weaver. Not that she WAS a good carpet weaver—IS.

Mrs. Conboy is the capable and energentic representative of the United Textile Workers of America on the governing board of the new Federation Bank of New York, to be formally elected next week.

She is the secretary of the United Textile Workers of America and the mouthpiece of 135,000 union workers (most of them women) in the new labor bank.

She feels "grand," "like a million dollars," she says, when she goes to those bank organization meetings and sits around the table "eating that gorgeous food." But that isn't to be taken too seriously.

Mrs. Conboy went to work in a candy factory when she was eleven years old, and as soon as she had finished the fourth grade in grammar school. As she told it:

"There were five of us children when my father died and left my mother with the burden of bringing us up. My older brother and I soon had to get out and help the family along. We had to go virtually without education other than we could give ourselves through reading and working. After the candy factory, I worked in a button factory, and then in a Roxbury carpet factory."

Mrs. Conboy told of her early struggle in the mills, of her marriage to a letter carrier, the birth of a little daughter, and her husband's death, driving her back to the carpet loom to provide for herself and baby. She said with emotion:

"I want to see married women with little babies out of these factories. I want to see men earning enough to take care of their families. Oh, I know no mother goes back into the mill unless she has to."

MRS. SARA A. CONBOY

Carpet weaver by trade who is soon to occupy the austere position of director in the new Federation Bank of New York. She will be the first woman of that State to serve in such capacity. She is well known in Boston.

3 QUINCY COUPLES IN DIVORCE COURT

Three Quincy couples have appealed to the Dedham Court to discontinue their matrimonial ties.

Helen P. Edgar of Quincy charges Maxwell L. Edgar of parts unknown with desertion. They were married in Boston, Jan. 22, 1913, and have two children.

Mildred S. Rubin of Quincy charges Benjamin Rubin of Chelsea with cruelty and desertion. They were married at Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 28, 1918. Alimony is asked.

Ethel M. Bostwick of Quincy charges Charles S. Bostwick of Boston with cruelty, neglect to provide and gross and confirmed habits of intoxication. They were married in Chelsea, June 14, 1906.

FREE VACATIONS OFFERED HORSES

Help the horses have a vacation. For $7.50 a week any poor old faithful sentenced to haul a truck, dray or delivery wagon can enjoy two weeks at Nevins' rest farm.

The Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals cannot give enough to cover the need and also maintain its Summer water fountains. The society is offering a free two weeks' vacation to any horses whose owners either cannot or else would not give the society the amount due.

MISSING BOAT OF SUNKEN RUM SHIP FOUND

Vineyard Haven, May 11.—State investigators of the sinking of the rum ship John Dwight disclosed today that the missing sixteen-foot steel boat of the sunken craft had been found and has been hidden by them for nearly a month.

Attorney-General Benton and Public Safety Commissioner Foote inspected the boat which was found on Naushon Island shortly after the John Dwight went down on the morning of April 4 last, by John Olsen, caretaker for J. Cameron Forbes.

A stiff southwest wind precluding a search of the sunken rum runner by Diver Curney, Attorney-General Benton devoted the entire day to examination of witnesses. Testimony of two young women, who overheard a conversation of rum runners on the island, positively links a Cambridge man with the rum running of the John Dwight, it was stated.

A possible clew to the mystery was picked up by Captain Ed Dalen to the eastward of the spot where the John Dwight sank. This was a coat containing a pocketbook with an identification card inscribed "Daniel Miller, Bath, Me.," and "The Boston Sand and Gravel Company," a Masonic emblem and a counterfeit silver dollar.

Another attempt at diving to the John Dwight was made today. In the meanwhile, Attorney-General Benton has asked the Navy Department for the use of two divers to speed up the search.

Truck Law Passed

Providence, R. I., May 11. — The Uniform Truck Law, an act which limits the gross weight of trucks, prohibits the use of wheels that will damage the public highways, and limits speed is now before the Governor for approval.

MEXICO ADOPTS BUDGET INDICATING RETURN TO STABILITY

PEOPLE EXPRESS APPROVAL THROUGH LEGISLATORS

By C. B. TRAVIS.
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

This is the first of a series of highly important articles on present conditions in Mexico, with especial reference to the question of the stability and integrity of the present government. Recognition of Mexico by the United States is expected soon.

Mexico City, May 11.—The details of the Mexican budget for 1923 have just become available. The fact of the budget itself and its items are held by friends of the present administration to be conclusive proof of the stability and progressiveness of the Mexico of today.

The issuance of the budget, they say, signifies a return to the regular order for the first time since 1912 when the Mexican House last exercised its constitutional right of approving governmental expenditures.

ECONOMY FEATURE.

The outstanding feature of the new budget is economy. The total is 347,006,719 pesos (a peso is equivalent to fifty cents), a reduction of 10 per cent from last year, although the budget carries 41,470,000 pesos toward the payment of the public debt, of which 30,000,000 pesos applies on foreign loans in accordance with the terms of the De La Huerta-Lamont agreement.

Petroleum export duties of 20,500,000 pesos have actually been deposited with the International Bankers' Committee of which Thomas W. Lamont is chairman.

Under Carranza all civil employes were forced to accept bonds for 25 per cent. of their salaries to help meet the expenses of the revolution. Last year's budget provided 2,827,618 pesos towards the redemption of these bonds.

A claim of a similar nature is recognized and reduced by the provision of 4,000,000 pesos for interest on the debt to the banks which were seized during the Carranza revolution.

While immediate settlement with the former owners of the estates granted as "Ejidos," or community lands, to the Pueblos, is an admitted impossibility in Mexico's present financial need, the government acknowledges the obligation and provides interest on the bonds which are being created for eventual settlement.

MONEY FOR PENSIONS.

The new budget includes 3,500,000 pesos for the pensioning of retired army officers, for the relatives of soldiers, and for retired railway workers and their families; 500,000 pesos for the pensioning of public school teachers; and 500,000 pesos as pensions to relatives of officials and employes in the Federal civil service.

Mexico's program of national defense will cost her 126,476,191.71 pesos. This means a decrease of 30,033,737.97 pesos from 1922. The reductions indicate that the policy of gradually demobilizing troops and returning them to civil life is being carried out.

PROGRESS IN EDUCATION.

The appropriation for public education has been raised 2,436,187 pesos over last year to extend the fight against illiteracy. The teaching of reading and writing to 25,000 adults, through the system of neighborhood night classes, was reported in 1922. Now 334 educational centres have been established with the aid of 3,075 new rural teachers. Missionary teachers circulate through the most distant part of the republic training the Indians. There is an appropriation of 320,000 pesos for breakfasts for public school children and 300,000 pesos for scholarships for Mexican boys in foreign countries.

But Mexico's real plans for future development are revealed in the "eventual expense" column, which has 1,300,000 pesos for the development of harbors; 5,650,000 pesos for new railroads, and 5,500,000 pesos for new highways.

Boston Guests Are to Attend Bryn Mawr Wedding, Says Betty Alden

Mrs. Theodore Chadwick, member of the Sewing Circle, the Vincent Club and the Colonial Dames, is one of the smart set's most attractive younger matrons. She was Miss Elizabeth Zerrahn.
(Photo by White)

By BETTY ALDEN.

EVER since they began to help swell the Radcliffe endowment fund out Cambridge way, society has presented plays, given balls and held sales—all for this same cause.

Radcliffe Night at the "Pops" next Tuesday which promises to be a colorful event, has the patronage of a group of well-known matrons, including Mesdames George W. Vaillant, George H. Burrage, John S. Penman and John F. Moors.

THE marriage of Miss Anita Strawbridge of Bryn Mawr to Theodore P. Grosvenor will, I presume, attract a Boston delegation to Bryn Mawr on June 14. The prospective groom, a Harvard '20 man and member of the Tennis and Racquet Club, is about as well-known in Boston and New York as he is in Providence. He is a brother of Mrs. George Peabody Gardner, Jr. (Rose Grosvenor) of Brookline. His bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge and is a frequent visitor in New York, where she has a host of friends.

A PROPOS of weddings to come—slender Catherine Adams should make a very dainty bride when she becomes Mrs. Henry Sturgis Morgan. TThe daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Adams—she is blonde and petite—has decided to have a very quiet wedding, the interesting ceremonial to take place on June 26 at the home of her parents.

Which means that young Morgan will become a benedict just a few days after he receives his sheepskin from Harvard. He's the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, which of course, recalls the interesting fact that not only did his father choose a Boston girl as his bride—Mrs. Morgan was formerly Jane Grew—but his older brother, Junius Spencer Morgan, Jr., married Miss Louise Converse of Boston.

WHEN Mrs. Theodore Chadwick—she was then Elizabeth Zerrahn—made her debut about five years ago, she was hailed as one of the cleverest and most attractive girls of her year. An accomplished musician, she played prominent parts in the Vincent Club shows.

Bright Spots in Shadowland

FOLLOWING the example set by his friends Park Benjamin, 2d, and Craig Biddle, Jr., Amos Tuck French, Jr., has gone into motion pictures. Mr. French of the well known family of that name of Newport and New York made his debut as a film actor this week in "Under the Red Robe," the screen version of Stanley Weyman's famous story which Alan Crosland is directing for the Cosmopolitan Corporation. Amos Tuck French, Jr., is a grandson of Mrs. Stuyvesant Le Roy and a nephew of Mrs. Paul Fitz Simmons, formerly Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt. He is also a cousin of William H. Vanderbilt. In the same picture, in which Robert B. Mantell, John Charles Thomas and Alma Rubens are featured, Park Benjamin, 2d, is also appearing. Mr. French, Jr., attended Princeton University.

TWO PROMOTIONS

APPLYING army rules that no man is indispensable and that "officer material" can be trained up from the ranks, Arthur H. Jacobs, producer of Frank Borzage Productions, has just promoted two valuable men to prepare for more extensive production activities. The lucky pair are Bunny Dull and Lou Borzage. Dull becomes production manager. He was assistant with Borzage for several years and has learned production methods from all angles. Lou Borzage was named first assistant to his brother. He served three years as second assistant and has been studying every angle of picture making under his brother.

Studio Notes

TADA STYKA, Polish artist, who is considered one of the finest portrait painters in the world, has just finished a painting of Marion Davies, Cosmopolitan star. As Miss Davies was hard at work on "Little Old New York" at the time the portrait was made, she had to pose on Sundays and at odd hours which she could snatch from the studio.

* * *

THE first propaganda picture was directed by Charles Brabin, now directing "Six Days" for Goldwyn. It was "The Usurer's Grip," made in 1910 as part of the war on loan sharks in New York city.

* * *

MONTE BLUE and Irene Rich will be co-starred in the Warner Brothers picturization of Kathleen Norris' novel, "Lucretia Lombard."

* * *

LIGE CONLEY will soon be seen in the Educational Mermaid comedy, "Three Strikes," a college baseball story wherein Lige emulates Babe Ruth and knocks out a home run—ninth inning, two outs, bases full and four runs needed to win.

SYNAGOGUES IN BOSTON WILL RETAIN WINE

Boston synagogues will not follow the reported action taken in Los Angeles and Sacramento, Cal., in placing a ban on wine for sacramental purposes, it was stated today.

According to dispatches, Dr. Mayer Winkler, rabbi of Sinai Congregation of Los Angeles, stated there was no need for wine for religious purposes. The ban was announced through an organization called the Kehillah. Similar action was reported to have been taken at Sacramento.

Orthodox Jews of Greater Boston declared today that wine is necessary for sacramental purposes, and in the Jewish faith is the symbol of happiness. Many parts of the Jewish ritual, particularly exercises in the homes, call for prayers made over wine.

New Reptile Society Formed to Aid "Good" Snakes

New York, May 11.—The Reptile Society of America, headed by Raymond L. Ditmars, curator of the Bronx Park Zoo, was granted incorporation papers by Supreme Court Justice Lehman.

William C. Stone, counsel for the society, explained it was the purpose of the society to preserve the "good" and destroy the "bad" snakes.

RAISE GRANTED 20,000 RAIL WORKERS

Minneapolis, Minn., May 11.—A wage increase affecting 10,000 maintenance of way employes of the Great Northern Railway and ranging from $5.64 to $10 a month was signed by the company and Louis Vogland.

Nashville, Tenn., May 11.—Wage increases of two and three cents an hour were granted shopmen of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway as the result of a conference between workmen and officials of the road. About 10,000 men are affected.

LURID NOTES WRITTEN TO FINANCIER

Contained Unsubstantiated Charges Against Maxwell, the Accused, and Mrs. Ryan

New York, May 11.—George Maxwell, married, middle-aged, a music lover and a frequent figure in the drawing room of New York society, has been named in an indictment, charged with being the author of a series of anonymous letters to Allan A. Ryan of the most lurid tint, relating to Maxwell himself and Mrs. Ryan.

Mr. Maxwell, President of the American Society of Composers, Authors and [illegible], is accused of [illegible].

The [illegible] resulted from a [illegible] letter of an [illegible] received by Allan A. [illegible]. The letters made charges [illegible] unsubstantiated, against Maxwell [illegible] with Mrs. Ryan.

RYAN IS SILENT.

Maxwell was said by his brother [illegible] in Europe. Mrs. Ryan is abroad. Mr. Ryan [illegible] his office refused to [illegible] the case.

The letters received by Ryan, it is [illegible] to letters received four years ago by a man of social prominence here, in which the same sort of charges [illegible] were made against Maxwell and that man's wife.

In the [illegible] of four years before the two [illegible] other [illegible] have been [illegible] of wrongdoing with Maxwell.

All the letters [illegible] a strong resemblance. [illegible] written and [illegible] but one instance one of the Ryan letters [illegible]. The signature to [illegible] of the Ryan letters was that of [illegible] Maxwell [illegible] in [illegible].

HANDWRITING IDENTICAL.

[illegible] of the [illegible] four years ago [illegible] letters received by Mr. [illegible] compared [illegible] Maxwell's [illegible] by the authorities. They are said to compare in every detail.

None of the [illegible] so far as can be learned [illegible] blackmail, threatened [illegible] at payment of any form. The writing of [illegible] their [illegible].

Mr. Ryan [illegible] the whole [illegible] to public view [illegible] his family should be [illegible] the whole case before [illegible] Attorney Banton.

The case was [illegible] the [illegible] was kept [illegible] it [illegible] other cases [illegible] might be [illegible].

LOSING SIGHT, GIRL LEAPS TO DEATH

MISS SARAH IRISH

Miss Irish, treasurer of the Somerville Theatre, her eyesight failing and fearing she was doomed to blindness, leaped four stories to her death.

BACK BAY GIRL PLUNGES TO DEATH

Miss Sarah Irish, treasurer of the Somerville Theatre, preferred death to blindness.

A leap out of the window of her home in a fourth-story apartment [illegible] No. [illegible] Massachusetts avenue, Back Bay, ended her life and carried out [illegible].

Her eyesight had been failing for [illegible] and she could not endure the [illegible] of its total loss. Twenty [illegible] before her death, [illegible] an attempt at suicide [illegible] the same window.

The [illegible] of her mother, Mr [illegible] a widow [illegible] who [illegible] was about to leap [illegible] that [illegible] had been [illegible] of No. 92 Mt. Vernon street, Dorchester [illegible] a neighbor, Mrs. Anna [illegible].

Under the [illegible] supervision, Miss Irish had seemed [illegible] some re[illegible] they [illegible] to the window, after [illegible] and plunged [illegible]. She was dead on arrival at [illegible] Hospital.

Following her unsuccessful attempt at suicide [illegible] sought to commit her to [illegible] Psychopathic Hospital for observation. Miss Irish however, refused to give her consent.

DRAG POND AND FIND BODY OF SLAIN RECLUSE

Redding, Conn., May 11.—The body of George Hultz, 77-year-old recluse, who disappeared from his cottage at Topstone last Friday night, has been found in Umpawaug Pond. The body was brought to the surface by four men from New Milford, who came here to aid in the search [illegible] had been unsuccessful for six days.

Hultz was killed in his cottage, probably by [illegible] and his body [illegible] dragged across [illegible] to [illegible] and thrown in. Blood [illegible] formed the principal clews on which the investigators based their reconstruction of the crime. Hultz's cottage was burned down and gave little [illegible] to work on.

[illegible] Morrey, a New Milford [illegible], with a grappling iron of his own, [illegible] came to Umpawaug [illegible] accompanied by [illegible] Nearing, W. [illegible] and [illegible] McMahon, all of New Milford.

"LOST" WOMAN CAN'T EXPLAIN ABSENCE

Mrs. Mary F. Brown, wife of Fred [illegible] Brown, wholesale flour dealer at the Boston Chamber of Commerce, returned to her home, No. 103 Summer street, Somerville, as mysteriously as she disappeared and while a State-wide police search was underway to find her.

Mrs. Brown, according to her husband, was in a highly nervous state and unable to account for her movements since Wednesday noon. She was placed under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Brown arrived at her home unaccompanied. The [illegible] of her clothing indicated that she had been indoors during [illegible] absence. Her husband said she had suffered a severe attack of influenza and that a nervous [illegible] resulted.

The Browns are socially prominent in Somerville. Mrs. Brown has also been a leader in religious and philanthropic activities. She is a treasurer of the Morgan Memorial.

'THROW 'EM OUT' ORDER STARTS COURT SUIT

There will be a hearing in Suffolk Superior Court today on the question whether Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Meade and the former's eighty-year-old mother, Mrs. Eliza Polley, are to be "thrown out on the sidewalk on Monday."

This threat was made, according to Mr. Meade, in a letter he received from Attorney John F. Hurley of the Tremont building, regarding the Meade occupancy of a tenement the family shares with Herbert S. Nash at No. 29 Centre street, Roxbury.

Meade showed the letter to Herbert E. Ellis of the Boston Rent and Housing Commission.

Ellis took it to Walter H. Watson of the Boston Legal Aid Society. Watson brought a bill of complaint against Hurley in the Superior Court, with hearing set for today. The letter to Meade read:

"You have been notified to vacate the rooms occupied by you in the tenement of Herbert S. Nash. You were notified to vacate more than two months ago. Now you are not a tenant of Mr. Nash and you do not come under the law of landlord and tenant.

"Unless you are out of the premises this week you will be thrown out on the sidewalk on Monday by a [illegible] company which has been hired for the purpose. It will not do you any good to see others to say they will save you from being evicted. You do not come within the law and you are a trespasser. This is the last notice and warning you will get.

"JOHN F. HURLEY."

Mr. Ellis says that Attorney Hurley agreed, after hearing of the bill of complaint, to give Mr. Meade thirty days' notice.

The bill of complaint sets up that Meade [illegible] a tenant at the Centre street [illegible] and has never received [illegible] notice.

FIN. COM. CHARGES FAVORITISM BY MAYOR CURLEY

$35,936 "LOSS" ON PAVING

Inferior Work Secured by Ignoring Bids Sent In, It Asserts

The Finance Commission charges that Mayor Curley is showing favoritism to certain contractors in the awarding of contracts for street pavement.

It further charges that the Mayor's action in awarding eight contracts for Warrenite-bitulithic to the Warren Brothers Company of Boston, who were not the lowest bidders, cost the city $35,936.05 more than it would have if the lowest bids had been accepted.

That by doing so the city has secured pavements much inferior to the pavements that would have been secured had the bids of the lowest bidders been accepted.

"GOOD FAITH VIOLATED."

The Finance Commission also charges that the good faith of the city was violated by inviting contractors to submit bids in open competition when it was apparently intended to award the contracts to Warren Brothers' Company, even if the company was not the lowest bidder.

The report also states that, in the opinion of the commission, the policy of the Mayor in approving contracts for bituminous pavements is a violation of section 30 of the charter amendments and is destroying the confidence of contractors in the good faith of the city in requesting bids for street paving.

The commission states it has heretofore called to the attention of the Mayor the fact that the patents owned by Warren Brothers Company on the old type of bitulithic expired in 1910 so that now any contractor may use it if the city desires to secure this type of pavement.

CITY LOST $5,277.

Despite this, the report goes on to say, the Mayor recently approved two paving contracts—pavement on Commonwealth avenue and on the Jamaicaway and Arborway, to Warren Brothers, who were not the lowest bidders.

In addition to the above, it charges the Mayor with approving a contract for the paving of Breck avenue and other streets in the Brighton district to S. J. Tomasello, who was not the lowest bidder but who agrees to use Warrenite-bitulithic, controlled by Warren Brothers. The total unnecessary cost to the city by these contracts is $5,277.50, and the city will secure inferior pavement.

The commission also charges that the contracts were awarded on the advice of Joseph A. Rourke, Public Works Commissioner, and James B. Shea, chairman of the Park Department.

FOUR-YEAR OLD PAVING

NORTH BEACON STREET, BRIGHTON

This is a sample of the new Warrenite-Bitulithic pavement used by the Warren Brothers Company to which the Finance Commission objects. It charged that the city is wasting money in granting contracts for this paving, which has been found to be short lived, it claims, when other contractors whose bids are lower, but who are ignored, can furnish better wearing materials. This street was repaired four years ago.

WORK ON NEW HOTEL STATLER DELAYED

The new Statler Hotel in Park square will not be built for some time, according to E. S. Statler, secretary of the company. Work has been delayed for technical reasons he said. "Even if plans were ready we could not proceed at the present time. Building conditions today are worse than they have ever been. We find ourselves at the mercy of the building trades, unions and do not see how we can get away from it."

Gum-Dipped Cords Gaining New Fame for Service

194% Sales Increase in Last Six Months Shows Trend Toward Firestone

The public has emphatically spoken. The popular preference in all territories is unmistakably the Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

A standard of service has been set by these famous tires without parallel in the past. It has brought a sales increase of 194% for the past six months over the same period of a year ago—the greatest gain in all Firestone history.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord is the mighty achievement which has enabled Firestone to break the tremendous record of past Firestone success.

The tire buying public has been aroused to the results in economical mileage of the Firestone process of double gum-dipping. The buying-swing toward Firestone shows how it has advanced the public's standard of tire value.

Ask owners about Firestone performance on their cars. Note the big taxicab fleets Firestone-equipped. Watch the new cars you see—just from the factories; Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords are seen everywhere in fast increasing numbers.

Get the maximum extra mileage that only the Firestone name assures you. Only by insisting on this name can you be sure of getting the genuine gum-dipped construction.

Bigger Business Means Better Values

The greater value-giving for which these Kennedy Live Stores are famous is largely due to the tremendous volume of our business. Our running expenses are remarkably low anyway, and when spread out over all the clothes we sell, the part each garment has to bear is the smallest on record in the retail clothing business.

And as the largest spot-cash buyers of Good Clothes we pass on to our customers all the price and quality advantages which such buying brings us.

So it's like rolling a snowball---the bigger our business the better values we can give, and the better our values the bigger our business grows and so on, ad infinitum.

Good Clothes from The House of Kuppenheimer

We feature these famous clothes not because of any one point of superiority, but because of their all-around goodness. They offer a well balanced combination of correct style, faultless fit, choice fabrics, and fine tailoring which makes for complete satisfaction, more especially in view of the Kennedy prices of

BRIDE FEARS MATE'S MIND IS GONE

MRS. J. F. LAWSON

LAWSON VICTIM OF AMNESIA, IS BELIEF

John F. Lawson of No. 6 Blanchard street, Roxbury, missing prohibition agent, may be wandering about the country a victim of amnesia.

This is now the belief of his bride of a few months, who has abandoned the theory that Lawson was murdered by bootleggers against whom he had given information, and who scouts the suggestion that Lawson is in hiding because of some difficulty.

Mrs. Lawson, together with Lawson's father and mother, went to Wakefield, R. I., where she viewed the mutilated body [illegible] Bass Rock, in Narragansett Bay. She declared the body is not that of her missing husband.

Lawson has been missing since March 1, this year. Mrs. Lawson's story, briefly told, is that Lawson left home on business on March 1 and failed to return.

"He went to see his cousin, Frank Lawson, vice-president of a Gloucester bank," his wife said. "He saw his cousin and hurried away to catch a train, declining an invitation to visit longer. [illegible] told me he would meet me.

"He didn't come back. He didn't telephone. I believe he is suffering from amnesia."

Autopsy On "Unknown's" Body Shows Murder

Providence, R. I., May 11.—An autopsy performed on the unidentified body of a man found off Bass Rock near Narragansett Pier, which Mrs. Ethel Lawson of Boston failed to identify as that of her husband, shows murder, according to Medical Examiner John Burke.

Police believe that the man was the victim of a rum runners' feud, that he was murdered on board a ship, stripped of his clothing, and thrown overboard. They are attempting to link him with the crew of the sunken rum runner, John Dwight, recently located off Gay Head.

"While it is impossible to be absolutely certain as to the cause of death," said Medical Examiner Burke in his report to Attorney General Herbert L. Carpenter, "the absence of water in the lungs or stomach and the absence of congestion in the viscera make it seem highly improbable the man was drowned. The man was about forty years old."

NOTE OF LOVE TO HER MOTHER REPUDIATED

Lucy Noonan, fifteen years old, tearfully admitted, when confronted with a letter she had written [illegible] Mrs. Lillian Marie Wylie, but declared she doesn't love her mother now. She was on the witness stand before Judge Chamberlain in East Cambridge Court.

Mrs. Wylie is fighting for the guardianship of Lucy, born to her a year after she obtained a divorce from Frederick Richards and of Ernine Wylie, daughter of her present husband.

Mrs. Lillian M. Wylie.

Lucy Noonan.

Throughout the four hours of the [illegible] she showed [illegible] for her mother. She declared she loved the agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children better.

The letter, introduced as evidence by Attorney John Vaughn, counsel for Mrs. Wylie, is as follows:

"Dear Mother: I wish I could be home with you; I would give anything to be there again with you. You know that no matter how humble it is, there is no place like home.

"Carrie has made me say things I did not want to say. Carrie will get hers yet but I will stick to the truth every time."

The girl admitted having loved her mother at the time she wrote the letter but said that love is dead now. She requested the court to appoint Mrs. Catherine Huggins as her guardian.

Mrs. Wylie admitted acquaintanceship with some of the men named by her daughter, but denied any improper relations with them.

LYNN TRIO PINNED UNDER AUTOMOBILE

John J. Killett, No. 259 Chestnut street, Lynn, sustained slight cuts on his face, and his wife Catherine and son Earl escaped uninjured, when the wishbone of the touring car he was driving, broke, causing the car to turn turtle on Fayette, near Marianna streets. Passersby assisted the trio from under the automobile.

Stylish Young Woman Who Made Plea for Gray Is Mona Devore

The "mystery girl," who has been the centre of attraction in East Cambridge court [illegible] trial of William [illegible] charged with [illegible] stores in Cambridge and Somerville, has been identified [illegible] Mona Devore, sweetheart of Gray.

[illegible]

W. E. Gray

[illegible] Devore [illegible] she was also known as Ruth Calo. She gave her home as Schenectady, N. Y. She admitted to police that she was Gray's sweetheart, but after a severe grilling she was released.

[illegible]

Miss Devore read the report and went [illegible] sight.

She showed up the first day of Gray's trial when she held up the proceedings by asking leniency for Gray. Assistant District Attorney Bushnell halted the trial and conferred with the girl for some time. She would not give her name. She has attended the trial every day since.

FIREMAN RETIRES AFTER 52 YEARS

Somerville's veteran fireman, Lieutenant Frank L. Draper of Ladder 1, Union square, was retired by the board of aldermen of that city at his own request on half pay after fifty two years service, to take effect at the completion of his vacation on May 20. While he has been commended several times during the half century for daring acts and good work, Lieutenant Draper has never once been reprimanded. He is in his seventy-third year.

WIND PREVENTS FROST NIPPING FRUIT TREES

A stiff wind saved the fruit crop of Middlesex county from destruction by frost last night. Peach, apple and pear trees are in full bloom and undoubtedly would have been wiped out by last night's frost but for the constant wind. Temperatures ranged from one to three degrees below the freezing point. Much asparagus was nipped.

Reports today from several towns in the northerly and westerly sections of Worcester County record a drop in temperature of forty degrees to 28 in forty-eight hours, with snow capping the hills in Rutland, Princeton and Barre.

The lowlands in the valley towns [illegible] but as peas are about the only vegetable out of the ground [illegible] crops. The big peach orchards in Grafton, Berlin, Bolton and Harvard being on high ground escaped the ravages of barbarous Jack Frost. Most all ponds were frozen over.

Because of the hot weather, the Calexico, Cal., school board [illegible] an order for schools [illegible] at 8 o'clock in the morning and close at noon. The thermometer registered 102 degrees.

Snow, starting before midnight, covered the Gallatin Valley in Montana with white.

Frost did some damage to strawberry plants in Fitchburg. Farmers and market gardeners covered plants and thereby saved crops at the thermometer dropped to 2 3 in some parts of the city. The official reading was 31. Poultry raisers protected baby chicks by placing burlap bags and other covering on coops.

Revere Boys and Girls Who Dressed Up for "Children's Day" Are Dismissed

Revere High school seniors who went too far, in the opinion of Principal Frank W. Morse, in their fantastic costumes for celebration of so-called "Children's Day," were dismissed from school today.

The costumes of four or five of the girls, Morse said, were hardly within the bounds of decorum. He made [illegible] pantalettes showing after [illegible] for little girls of [illegible] five years ago.

[illegible] boys and girls whose attire [illegible] attract attention from [illegible] were allowed to [illegible] continued, [illegible] they could not come to school in such costumes.

"It was a case of some of them carrying [illegible]

PARADE TO COMMON

Morse said he could not tell offhand just how many were dismissed. He thought it ran to less than a half dozen girls and about twenty-five boys.

The estimate [illegible] dismissed [illegible] it appeared [illegible] for the Common [illegible] band stand.

Between seventy-five and 100 boys [illegible] kiddies' costumes or cowboy [illegible] garb rode by train from Revere to the North Station and paraded informally to the Common.

Among the leaders was Harry Hurwitz, captain of the 1922 football team, and Arthur Chainey, the latter wheeling along a small kiddie car in which he seated himself with some difficulty whenever the line halted.

OFF TO SWAN BOATS.

Other boys in the costume parade included Max Spack, Frank Massa, Paul Mullira, Joseph Murray, George Goldman, John Hooker, Reuben Hurwitz, Andrew Clark, Walter Ryan, David Weinraub, Joseph Lombardi, Edward Welch, Montgomery Meigs, M. Herman, M. Weinstein, William Griffin, Erving Osgood, Arthur Cotaldi, Afry Rubinstein, William Bonnis, Edward Buzzell, Charles Pilludino.

Class President Richard Spry led his classmates into the Common. At [illegible] made a speech. Then the gang went over to the pond in the Public Garden. All made for the swan boats.

"How much to ride?"

"Ten cents."

"Gee, thought is was a nickel."

Three-quarters of them piled out when the "plutes" of the crowd took a dime's worth of swan-boating.

Two husky policemen, who had picked up the parade trail, stood upstage in case they would be needed.

FIRE REVEALS BIG LIQUOR STILL

When firemen answered an alarm for fire in a supposedly unoccupied two-story brick dwelling at No. 132 Everett street today they found a [illegible] distillery in operation.

There were four 75-gallon stills, [illegible] cartons containing 108 gallons of alcohol, 860 empty whiskey bottles, 5 empty barrels and a large quantity of hair tonic in the place. One of the stills was in operation. The plant was unattended.

According to the police, a raid was made on the house recently. At that time the place was empty. The house is owned, the police say, by Frank and Ferdinand Santarpio. Police are searching for the still operators. Damage estimated at $300 resulted from the fire, which is believed to have started from the still.

HARVARD JOB AGENCY URGED BY GRADUATES

A Harvard graduate employment service with headquarters in New York, new dormitories, immediate measures for rasing funds for a new chemical laboratory and proposals that the Harvard war memorial should take the form of a chapel are recommended in reports from 112 clubs in the Associated Harvard Clubs, made public by Langdon P. Marvin, class of 98, president of the clubs.

It is also recommended that the location of the war memorial should await the publication of a plan for the future physical development of the university.

Other recommendations are: That a scholarship be established at Emmanuel College, [illegible] England, in memory of Lionel deJersey Harvard, '15, who was killed in action at Arras in 1917, that the committee which is raising $250,000 to endow five professorships at Berea College, Kentucky, in memory of Professor N. ## BABY TOSSED OUT BY RUNAWAY HORSE

Lawrence, May 11.—Cries of excited women attracted the attention of Mrs. Harold Fishwick of No. 552 Hampshire street to a runaway horse galloping toward her on Willow street today. She made frantic effort to reach safety. The horse's hoofs beat against the carriage in which was her nine-months-old son. The baby was tossed out. An examining physician said the boy was unharmed, except for a few minor scratches.

GIRL DESCRIBES PURNELL TEST OF FAITH

St. Joseph, Mich., May 11.—Mrs. Levina Johnson Henger, twenty years, who fled from the House of David two weeks ago, today told Judge Harry Dingeman, the one-man grand jury investigating charges of immorality at the colony, that "King" Benjamin Purnell, the [illegible] made improper advances to her when she was visiting at Shiloh last Summer.

"King" Benjamin, she testified, asserted he was "testing her faith" when she objected.

Lillian Boruff, a seventeen-year-old girl member of the colony, was called to testify after her name was mentioned by Mrs. Henger, but she steadfastly maintained she knew nothing against Benjamin's character.

When she decided to leave the cult, Mrs. Henger said, she was requested to sign an affidavit that [illegible] impeccable.

Left a Nevous Wreck by Attempts to Shoot; Parents Engage Detective

Williamstown, May 11.—A third attempt upon his life by mysterious assailants left William E. Conklin, a Williams College sophomore, on the verge of a nervous collapse today.

Twice young Conklin has been shot at through the window of his room in Williams Hall. Despite the secrecy of his transfer to a room in Zeta Psi fraternity house, his movements were traced.

CHASED BY STUDENTS

A ring of student guards at the fraternity house spied the mysterious assailants approaching with revolvers showing. They fled when challenged and were vainly pursued by the students.

The father and mother of the sophomore were with him today, coming hurriedly from New Rochelle, N. Y., after the second attack. They brought a private detective who is making an investigation together with the local police and college authorities.

MOTIVE IS MYSTERY

Not a shadow of a clue [illegible] motive for the attacks [illegible] has been obtained as [illegible] boy, himself, avows that [illegible] given no one cause for such violence.

Hazing has been eliminated because of the deadly aim of the assailants, Conklin once saving himself by falling quickly to the floor. A bullet hole showed in the wall directly in line with where he had been standing upright.

STORE SHOW CAST TO WITNESS "BOMBO"

The forty talented employes of the S. S. Pierce Company who recently staged "The Powder Puff Girl," written by Richmond Ordway, assistant general manager, will be the guests of directors of the company tonight at the Al Jolson show, "Bombo."

The directors decided in this way to show their appreciation of the hard work put in by the cast to make the show such a success. The performers rehearsed for two months under direction of Jimmie Alison and Dave Morey. "The Powder Puff Girl" was put on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

OUR BEST FRIENDS

By One of Them

THE bird who tells you what a sucker you are that you didn't take his advice and play "Florida Oil" when it was at 34, in harrowing fashion illustrating in motor cars and yachts what you might have had if you had invested one thousand dollars and ending up by asking you if you have a cigarette.

The lady who expounds what pneumonia has done to nine of her friends when the baby is laid up with it, reciting with great avidity how her chum's sister's aunt passed away with it and "she had only been sick a day."

The bird at the funeral who keeps remarking, "Well, one of us will be going next, I suppose," repeating the same until you find yourself praying for wings and an invisible cloak that you might depart the conveyance you are cooped in before you make sure he is next by annihilating him on the spot.

The boss who tells you what a fine guy you are, what a nice future is in store for you and how well he hopes the firm will soon be doing, yet never makes his so-called appreciation felt in the pay envelope.

The guy who accepts your invitation for a Sunday motor ride and makes a funeral procession out of it by wondering just when you'll get your first puncture, and if you have all the necessary repair tools along.

The girl who accepts your invitation to a party, taxies at your expense, then flirts with a stranger all the time the party is on.

Grins and Growls

By Lisle Bell

IT'S perfectly all right to call a girl a vision but think twice before you call her a sight.

Men used to become monks to escape marriage; now they become monkeys and court.

When a man can make up his mind on a point possibly he doesn't require any more room than that.

You might call the present style in skirts extreme because they have gone to [illegible] lengths.

No matter what happens, you always meet somebody who knew it would.

This country is still in a fairly normal condition as long as the people look at the weather forecast in the morning paper before they look at the foreign news.

Thoreau says that a man never forgets anything once learned, but Thoreau never had occasion to fabricate a few impromptu remarks to fit into a banquet program.

Doubtless the strangest person in the round world, at this writing, is the person who is still trying to keep his New Year's resolutions.

A great deal of time which might be spent in self-improvement is wasted by young men who take girls to restaurants and wait for them to make up their minds what they want for dessert.

Chicago has a home for poets, and the number of letter carriers on that route has been doubled.

Some girls try to elevate their minds by building up their heels.

A talking doll has been devised which will help children to learn to speak. Many a grown-up man has been taught a thing or two by a talking "doll."

One trouble with uncalled for bills is that they always look so entirely uncalled for.

I was riding in a western Massachusetts railway car. When the conductor came around for his fare I discovered that my jeans had acquired a hole and devoided itself of my coin. I was a total stranger and not a friend in sight. I was not, however, ejected from the vehicle, but I chose an end seat and sunk down in it humiliated. When I came to my stop I got up and the required dime fell from my trouser leg. Triumphantly I started up front to pay the conductor and fell over a suitcase near the aisle and snapped two suspender buttons. More embarrassment. When I paid the conductor I slammed a door on his thumb and he voiced profanity as much as he dared in front of lady passengers. I walked down the aisle and heard people giggle and speak of my clumsiness.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth by Mentho-Sulphur, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ringworm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin troubles should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

USE MULSIFIED

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to arrange.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It is very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

The Tufts pitching staff is greatly strengthened. Bill Morrell, varsity twirler for the last three years, is eligible to pitch for the rest of the season.

Morrell is well known in collegiate circles and it was his fine twirling that defeated Harvard last year at the Oval.

Coach Nash has been up against a tough proposition this year with Art Kroog only to depend upon. However, the team has made out remarkably well and only dropped two games.

With Morrell now ready to take his turn in the box the Brown and [illegible] nine expects to equal its record of last season when only four out of their twenty-four games were dropped.

BRITONS GASP AT OUIMET'S PLAY

British amateur title won by an American since 190[illegible], it was won by Walter J. Travis.

WETHERED COMES THROUGH.

Roger Wethered, a British [illegible] defeated [illegible] of St. [illegible] As a result of the [illegible] match [illegible] will meet Wethered in one semi-final this afternoon.

Douglas Grant, former American and champion of California, but now a resident of London, defeated R. P. Humphries, Sturbridge, by 3 and 2.

Ten minutes later [illegible] Grant, American by birth and [illegible] also went [illegible] victory over [illegible] Humphries of Stur[illegible] 2 up [illegible] to play.

[illegible] and Grant are the first Americans [illegible] the [illegible] round of the British amateur golf championship [illegible] having been won in America.

SHOCK TO BRITISH.

The defeat of Tolley was [illegible] shock [illegible] to the [illegible] led [illegible] for the [illegible] open championship [illegible] Ouimet and Wethered [illegible] of [illegible] round 2 up and 1 to play.

The American was right on top of his game and [illegible] with his putting [illegible] better golf than anything he has previously shown [illegible] He fairly [illegible] Tolley.

Ouimet—
Out 4 5 5 2 5 3 5 3 6—38
In [illegible] 4 5 3 4
Tolley—
Out 5 4 5 3 5 4 5 3 5—39
In [illegible] 5 5 5 5 3 4

OUIMET'S BIRDIE 2.

Ouimet [illegible] first [illegible] the green with his second while Tolley was [illegible] the distance. The Briton, however, proceeded [illegible] the [illegible] and won the hole in consequence [illegible] eight [illegible] and won the fourth with a [illegible] putt [illegible] while the [illegible] gallery gasped in awe.

The fifth was also halved, Tolley brilliantly [illegible] a stymie to get the necessary five, but the sixth went to Ouimet 3 to 4, the latter pitching to within four feet of the pin and [illegible] for another birdie. The next two were halved, but Tolley won the ninth, Ouimet playing [illegible] for the first and only [illegible] during the round. This left the American 1 up.

Ouimet proceeded to run this narrow lead into comfortable proportions by winning the tenth and eleventh with perfect 4's. The Boston ace was right back in stride after his temporary [illegible] and the [illegible] was [illegible] to behold.

A WONDERFUL EXHIBITION

At the tenth he placed his second within 10 feet of the pin while Tolley [illegible] his tee shot was far away.

The eleventh saw Ouimet drop a 20 foot putt for a winning four and while the twelfth was halved the following hole was the scene of another meticulous approach by the American, who won the hole with a four to a five and became 3 up. The next two were halved in par.

A large gallery followed the play [illegible] after the match freely admitted that Ouimet had given a wonderful exhibition.

In the Wethered-Drew match Wethered had a lead of five up at the [illegible] excellent medal of 3[illegible] He dropped four holes on the homeward journey and did not win one. He took the match, however, by [illegible] the last hole. The cards:

THE POPPY PERIL By LAUCHLIN JAMES

An Eye-Opener Romance in Which Is Depicted the Horror of What Drugs Do to Hollywood

BEGIN THIS STORY NOW

Two days after Kerry Rowan, a noted motion picture director, had visited the offices of the District Attorney in Los Angeles Rowan is found shot to death in his home, with a bowl of poppies scattered on the floor beside him. Rowan has given much information whereby the drug evil in Hollywood might be attacked and had promised to risk death by testifying against those caught in raids, for the sake of a clean Hollywood and because of his sincere affection for a young film star. Then, swing back to Ireland years earlier, where we meet Kenneth Royce, just out of college who goes to China as secretary to Sir Charles Aylsmere. Here he visits opium dens. While in China Kenneth meets Lily Waite, a "Dresden china doll," but discovers Lily's father is a morphine addict and card sharp. He comes to New York, is employed in a "Far East" shop and eventually meets Carra Layton, to whom he presents a Japanese dagger. Carra is found stabbed with the dagger in Chinatown with a deck of hop in her bag. Following Carra's death Kenneth disappears from New York and turns up at Skagway, Alaska, under the name of Kerry Rowan. In a voyage to Honolulu the ship is wrecked by the captain, who is under the influence of dope. He shoots himself as the ship goes down. Rowan goes to Hollywood, where he becomes a movie director.

Another Poppy Victim

PYRRHA had long since given up her efforts to win Kerry Rowan's affections, but she had been wise enough to retain his good will and had made friends with both Cecily Brook and Sylvia Stanley in turn, when she saw how obviously the director was interested in them.

"I'm almost out of my mind with neuralgia," Sylvia told her. "I have to be back on the set at 4 o'clock and I don't believe I can ever go through with it."

Perhaps Pyrrha suspected the true nature of Rowan's interest in the girl before her. If so, the recollection of the rebuff he had given her on a certain occasion late at night may have influenced her present action.

"Oh, my dear, how dreadful," she exclaimed. "I used to suffer from that, too, but I found something that gives instant relief. I have some in my dressing room. I'll get it."

After a moment she returned with a tiny hypodermic syringe concealed in her hand. "Not dope?" exclaimed Sylvia.

"What if it is? All medicine is dope," retorted Pyrrha, "but don't worry dear; this is just a mild sedative."

Sylvia, in her agony, believed her, and a moment later the menace of the poppy had entered once more into the life of Kerry Rowan.

"I've got her just like that!" Pyrrha Chandler held out an elaborately manicured, fantastically jeweled hand and slowly closed it as if crushing something in its grasp.

Sigmund Berry nodded, one side of his mouth curling slightly upward in a twisted smile. "And I've got Sackett going the same way. A few more customers like that and we're fixed for life, kid. I'm sick of peddling the stuff to these extras and atmospheres around here. They never can buy more than a shell or two at a time. I hope you're making Staley pay something sweet for life; she can afford it."

"Leave it to me, Sig; she's paying all right." In her most dramatic scenes before the camera Pyrrha had never looked more like the Black Panther than she did at that moment. "She wants a gun of her own, now. I told her I'd see what I could do. Have you got one on you? I'll see that the price is right."

Berry drew a small metal case from under the waistband of his trousers and opened it, disclosing a hypodermic syringe. "This spike ain't what it might be," said he, examining the needle, "but she won't know the difference." He closed the case and handed it to Pyrrha.

"Thanks," she said. "Now, have you anything from Lo Gow's that you want to leave here?"

"I sure have." Berry reached for the music case which he had deposited beside his chair and took from it a flat package, done up in rice paper. "There you are. The Japs and the Filipinos, and the greasers are all in the market these days, but none of them can touch that old Chink on price. Their stuff isn't as good, either."

Pyrrha rose from the chair in which she was seated, loosened a thong in the back edge of the Spanish leather cushion, thrust the package inside the opening, and lacing it up, replaced it as it was before.

"Now, the jack, if you don't mind," said Berry. Pyrrha took a roll of bills from her lace stocking and handed it over. Sig counted it.

"Close enough, I guess," he remarked and picked up his music case.

"Don't I even get a kiss?"

Sid Berry frowned slightly, then smiled with the smile of a clever actor. "Why, sure," he said, and for a moment took her in his arms.

"Leave it to me, Sig; she's paying all right!"

This conference with its strange mixture of business and sentiment, would have told an illuminating story to certain persons, had they been able to witness it. It would have told Matthew Crane, for instance, why the girl whose sweet nature had compelled his lifelong admiration became a subject all at once to fits of freakish petulance and irritability which left him hurt and mystified. It would have told him the reason for her suddenly cultivating the society of Pyrrha Chandler and her like, a group whose tastes were contrary to all her previous preferences.

Love at Any Price

It would have explained to Kerry Rowan why his new star had become increasingly hard to handle. It would have explained a curious denseness she displayed at times in trying to follow his directions. It would have accounted for her growing tendency to be late in appearing at the studio and to be careless in matters of costume and makeup.

In brief, it would have given him the key to the slow change which he could see coming over her but which, at first, he could not put a name to.

A sudden nervous gesture she made, an almost involuntary twitching movement, reminded him so forcefully and unexpectedly of Carra Leyton, that the sickening solution of the mystery flashed into his consciousness and left him stunned.

He could have shouted aloud in his rebellion against Fate, but experience had made him cautious and this time he did not let the victim know that he had pierced her secret.

He began, instead, to conduct a quiet investigation into the source and extent of the drug traffic, in the hope that he might take steps toward exterminating it before it was too late.

In his anxiety he turned first to Ada Dowell. The perennial ingenue wonderingly granted his request for a private interview with her at her home, and once there, he came straight to the point.

"Ada, you get around more than I do," he said, by way of introduction, "and I know the girls are forever coming to you with their troubles. Tell me something; are many of them trifling with drugs?"

Ada, all prepared to be frivolously entertaining, became serious at once. "Oh, Kerry, you don't know how glad I am that somebody is waking up to that thing at last," she exclaimed. "I'm a great believer in minding my own business, and of course, young folks are different nowadays and everybody has a right to be his own boss and all that, but just the same, there's a limit.

"I can stand for bootleg hootch, if anybody wants to drink it, but when they get to using the needle I think something ought to be done about it."

"My contention, precisely," stated Rowan, "but surely the practice isn't becoming general."

"Not among the people you and I meet, maybe, but there's a certain grade of artists who are hitting it pretty strong. Even some of the better known ones are not happy now unless they're experimenting with perfume on sugar, or beer and ether, or something."

"Beer and ether!"

"That's what I said. I went to a party not long ago where they served it and, believe me, it would make a mud turtle hop over Bunker Hill Monument. My mind is as broad as the Pacific, Kerry, but when I saw how that stuff was affecting those men and women—boys and girls, I ought to say—I left. I was too Bacchanalian for me, and that's saying something."

"But have you seen any actual drug using, Ada"

"Only once. I saw them pass 'snow' around in a sugar bowl one night, and everybody that wanted to took a snuff. I left that party, too."

"What I want to find out is where they get the stuff. Have you any idea?"

Ada pondered. "No, I don't think I have—not definitely," she said at last. "From what some of the girls have told me, I think it comes from Los Angeles. There are no regular joints in Hollywood, you know. I suppose the only way to do would be to keep track of the dope parties and see who the people are who are always on hand.

Third Generation is Using Syrup Pepsin

No other Laxative can replace Dr. Caldwell's in the confidence of those who use it

THERE are thousands of healthy, robust young men and women who have never in all their lives taken any other laxative for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Their parents were given it by their parents; the grandparents are using it today. It is the one laxative ideally suited to all the family, safe for the little ones, effective in grownups, so compounded that elderly people, who are constantly forced to take a laxative because the intestinal muscles are weakening, find increased dosage unnecessary. This wonderful constipation remedy has been used continuously for 30 years, and over 10 million bottles are now sold annually, the largest selling family laxative in the world! The cost averages but a cent a dose. Every druggist sells it, and under a guarantee to do as claimed or your money will be refunded.

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I urge you to try Syrup Pepsin. I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!

Mr. J. B. Belk of Shaw, Miss., relies on it entirely to keep his children in health, and Mrs. Catherine Connolly of Jersey City, N. J., declares that not only herself but all her neighbors and friends use it and tell others about it. There is scarcely a day that someone in a family does not need it for constipation, flatulency, auto-intoxication, biliousness, intestinal poisoning, headaches, colic and cramps, and to break up fevers and colds.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientifically-balanced compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. The formula is on the package. As the popularity of this natural vegetable laxative increases, the public discards the harsher physics like calomel, coal-tar in candy form, salt waters and powders. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

ROMANCES OF JEWELS

By Barbara Bayne

The Orloff Diamond

THOSE who know the fate of the Russian crown jewels are not telling.

Illidor, the "Mad Monk," a recent arrival in America, claims to have talked with the exiled Czar and Czarina at Ekaterinburg scarcely two hours before their tragic deaths. Will his hand tear away the veil of secrecy that has surrounded the whole tragic episode? Will he tell us the whereabouts of the crown jewels?

Among them is a magnificent diamond weighing 194¾ carats, sometimes called the "Scepter," but generally known as the "Orloff." The historical gem, linked with the Kohi-Noor and the Great Mogul, was the most renowned of the crown jewels and the chief ornament of the imperial scepter, on which it was placed.

According to tradition, it was stolen by a French soldier from the eye of a god in a Brahmin temple and sold to an English sea captain. After passing through many hands it found its way to Amsterdam, the great diamond mart of the world. It was purchased by Khojeh Raphael, a traveling Armenian merchant, who took it to Russia and eventually sold it to the lover of Catherine II., Count Gregor Orloff, for 90,000 pounds an annuity of 4,000 pounds and a patent of nobility.

Count Orloff, before his madhouse end, presented the magnificent diamond—the language of love in all tongues—to his imperial mistress in 1774.

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Which American enterprise, think you, has the largest number of stockholders?

The Steel Corportion? The American Telephone Company? The Pennsylvania Railroad? General Motors?

No.

That fledgling adventure, Durant Motors, in its less than two years' operations, has corralled more stockholders, thanks to its army of almost 2,000 stock salesmen, than the biggest and best known corporations in the country. Already many persons have been induced to sign their names on the dotted line and have begun to pay instalments, although it takes a long, long time to get actual delivery of the stocks.

* * *

Mr. Durant hopes to drum up 1,000,000 stockholders.

And he is now in search of 500,000 buyers of one share each in a colossal bank he is eager to launch along strange, novel lines.

* * *

Here are Mr. Durant's answers to the first of the questions submitted to him by me:

Question No. 1—I gathered from you that when you were retired from the presidency of General Motors at the end of 1920 you received less than $10 a share for your General Motors stock, which left you "stripped" of every dollar you possessed and very considerably in debt. That being the case, how were you in a position to subscribe for Durant Motors, Inc., stock less than six weeks later?

Answer: You are right in this instance; I did receive less than $10 per share, but have never been able to figure out just why my stock, taken over by certain individuals, was valued at $9.50 a share, when these same individuals six months prior to that time considered it proper and wise to purchase for the General Motors Corporation from Messrs. Ball Bros., of Muncie, Ind., 150,000 shares of General Motors common at $30 a share, asking and accepting (for the benefit of the company) my endorsement on notes for $4,500,000 given in payment for same with respect to the subscription at the time of the incorporation. It was just a case of a man thoroughly, completely and artistically "stripped" being helped out by a good friend who made the subscription in my name and received the stock when issued.

* * *

Question 2. How much Durant Motors, Inc., stock did you subscribe for?

Answer: The record shows that 6,193 shares were subscribed in my name.

* * *

Question 3. What price did you pay for it?

Answer: The party who subscribed in my name paid $10 a share. The same as all the other subscribers to the original offering. In this connection you might be interested in reviewing a copy of the letter sent to sixty-seven of my friends and acquaintances on Jan. 11, 1921, which produced the funds which made Durant Motors, Inc., possible, with special reference to paragraph 10:

"Dear Sir—

"While I am not ready just at this time to make the announcement, it will probably not surprise you to know that I am still interested and a firm believer in the motor industry and that I am organizing a company, controlled by myself and several of my good friends, which will be in active operation August 1.

"I cannot go into details regarding the corporation at this time, other than to say that it will bear the name Durant Motors, Inc., with one kind of stock, with every subscriber to the initial offering upon exactly the same basis as to price, with no commission, bonuses or reservations to myself or associates issued for experience, ability or past performances.

"Durant Motors, Inc., will be incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, with an authorized capital of 1,000,000 shares (no par value), 500,000 shares constituting the initial offering. I shall be pleased to have you with me and will accept your subscription to the extent of        shares or any part thereof at $10 per share, payable upon delivery of the permanent certificates—on or about March 1st.

"It is understood subscribers to the initial offering (which carries with it certain advantages as to price) will waive the usual rights of subscription with respect to any other offerings made during the year 1921.

"A line from you, indicating the amount of your subscription (if any) will be quite sufficient, with no obligation of any kind or description upon you to accept this invitation.

"Very truly yours,
"W. C. DURANT."

Question 4—How much Durant Motors, Inc., stock has the Durant Corporation already sold and how much does it propose to sell?

* * *

The answer to this and other equally pointed questions will be presented here in a few days.

NO EPIDEMIC OF CANCELLING

Restricted sales and lower prices for cotton goods resulting from the recent decent break in cotton have given rise to reports of cancellations of contracts for delivery of cotton goods. These naturally recall memories of the epidemic of cancellations in 1920 when the prices for both raw material and finished product turned downwards after the soaring markets of 1919.

A survey of the cotton goods trade does not indicate that there is any move worthy of notice of the "get out from under" variety of cancellation which characterized the 1920 debacle. The break in 1920 caught the trade in the midst of a period of almost unbounded confidence in values. Orders for goods were being placed from six to eight months ahead for fear of failure to obtain a supply. Speculation was rampant on a large scale.

Today conditions present almost an antithesis. For months all factors in the trade from manufacturer to retailer have exercised the greatest caution. A policy of hand-to-mouth dealing has been in force.

COTTON FUTURES PRICES HEAVY

New York, May 11.—Cotton futures were heavy today with prices from 5 to 15 points lower. Further selling made its appearance as a result of liquidation by weak holders and additional short selling. Forecasts of warm weather in the belt also influenced bearish sentiment.

May sold at 25.35, off 10; July at 24.05, off 15, and October at 22.60, off 5.

Liverpool reported an easier tone.

ELECTRIC COMPANY SEEKS FINANCING

Tampa Electric Co., a Stone & Webster property, is in need of new financing. Company has called a special meeting of stockholders June 8, to vote on increasing capital stock from $3,454,800 to $4,145,700 by issuance of 6,909 additional shares of $100 par. Holders of every five shares will be asked to subscribe at par to one new share.

DIVIDEND RAISE IN CALIFORNIA PETE

California Petroleum common will be put on $8 annual dividend at the next meeting, according to present plans. Present dividend is $7 yearly. In 1922 the company earned $16.72 a share on 173,770 shares of common outstanding. Earnings in the current year are exceeding that rate, so prospective increase in dividend is regarded as conservative.

Extra Stock Dividend

American Power, Electric & Light Co. has declared a dividend of 2 per cent, in stock on common in addition to regular cash dividend of 2½ per cent., both payable June 1 to stock of record May 19.

CHANGES IN NEW YORK LISTING

Application has been made to New York Stock Exchange to list:

Westinghouse Electric, $14,962,530 additional common, $50 par.

Douglas-Pectin Corporation, 300,000 shares common, no par.

Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Co., $4,200,000 20-year 8 per cent. sinking fund gold debentures, 15,750 shares of prior preference stock, no par, and 78,750 shares of common, no par.

Stock Exchange has stricken from the list Midvale Steel & Ordnance Co. 20-year 5 per cent. convertible sinking fund gold bonds, due March 1, 1936, and admitted Midvale Steel & Ordnance Co. 20-year 5 per cent. convertible sinking fund guaranteed gold bonds, due March 1, 1936, exchangeable for common stock of Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

HUB COALER HIT BY CAR SHORTAGE

Federal Fuel Distributor Wadleigh in a report on the bituminous industry says under the heading "Logan County District": "Car supply on the Chesapeake & Ohio is still very poor, and commercial mines are not receiving more than 35 per cent. supply. The only trouble now experienced is in the matter of transportation." Island Creek Coal Co.'s mines are located in the Logan field, which accounts for the fact that the company is unable to get out much more than 200,000 tons of coal a month, although mine capacity is more than double that.

DRUG FIRM PAYS 900 P. C. BONUS

For first time in history, the curtain has just been raised on finances of Sir Jesse Boots Pure Drug Company—now owned by Liggett's International Drug Company of America—revealing cash dividend of 360 per cent. on ordinary capital of 100,000 pounds, and stock bonus distribution of 900 per cent. or nine new ordinary shares on every existing share. This dividend, however, is equal to only 16 per cent. on American purchase price. Capital is now 2,400,000 pounds, all issued but 300,000 pounds which is to go to ordinary shareholders.

WOOLWORTH CO. OFF MORE THAN 14 POINTS

New York stock transactions showed a mixed tone today. Woolworth Co. was a reactionary feature, selling more than 14 points under its day's high before rallying. The Woolworth opening was up 4½ at a new high record. Woolworth gained 16 points yesterday.

Pere Marquette was a low-priced rail leader, up 2¾ at 42¾, a fresh 1923 top. St. Louis & Southwestern added 2 at 31¼. Canadian Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railway added a point or more.

Houston Oil and Stewart aWrner had 2-point advances. Pittsburgh & West Virginia was active and weak, off 2 at 47¾. American Car & Foundry rose 3½ at 174½. Baldwin was up over a point.

California Petroleum took on 2¾ at 93. Steels were heavy.

Pressure on the rails for transportation service is unabated, and even if there is some slackening in new business experienced by industrial plants traffic has attained sufficient momentum to carry on for some months. The carriers have been making every preparation, through purchase of equipment on a liberal scale, for handling enormous peak movement of freight this Fall, and there is every indication it will be realized when crops begin to go to market.

Demand sterling was unchanged at $4.60⅝, close to its year's low of $4.60. French francs were .0658¼, against yesterday's closing of .0659¼.

UNION INST. FOR SAVINGS HAS GAIN

The annual meeting of the Corporation of the Union Institution for Savings was held at their banking rooms May 9 and the following officers were re-elected: President, Henry V. Cunningham; vice-president, Edmund Reardon; treasurer, Thomas J. Kelly; assistant treasurer, John J. McCluskey; clerk of the corporation, Thomas McLaughlin. There were added to the corporation Daniel C. Maloney, president of the Federal National Bank, and Thomas O. McAnany. A dividend at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum was declared payable May 20. The institution shows a very substantial gain in business for the past year.

AVERAGE OF STEEL PRICES UNCHANGED

Dow, Jones & Co.'s average of eight important iron and steel products, based on Iron Age quotations, was unchanged this week at $61.02 a gross ton f. o. b. Pittsburgh. Of products not included in the average, ferromanganese was quoted at $130 a ton, an increase of $5. Scrap showed a decline ranging from $1 to $2 a ton in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Chicago markets, and coke was off $1 a ton from previous week's prices.

COPPER DEMAND STILL LIMITED

Demand for copper continues to be limited to comparatively small lots which are quoted at 16 cents at refinery and 16½ cents, delivered usual railroad zones. Some producers still quote 16¾ cents, but buyers are not in evidence on that bas's.

IRREGULARITY PREVAILS IN BOSTON

Waltham Watch prior preferred rose a point at 76.

There were fractional gains for American Telephone, American Woolen preferred, Island Creek Coal, New Haven, Ventura Oil, Swift & Co. and Edison.

Issues shaded were Boston Elevated, Copper Range, Mohawk, American Agricultural Chemical preferred, North Butte and Warren Brothers.

It is pointed out here that the Steel Corporation is at 97 per cent. capacity, new high record for present facilities, and the industry as a whole is turning out steel at the amazing rate of 48,000,000 tons. Consequently it is not surprising that unfilled tonnage of the corporation should recede for the first time in some months.

Most lively on the Boston Curb were: Cadillac Mining, up 2 at 55; Maracaibo, off ½ at 23; Premier Paymaster, up 4 at 62; Shaw Mines, up 5 at 60, and Verde Mines, unchanged at 60.

Boston Notes

CANTON will receive bids until 3 p. m., May 15, on $50,000 loan, dated May 15 and due November 15.

MEDFORD has sold a temporary revenue loan of $150,000, maturing $75,000 on both January 15 and February 15, 1924, to Curtis & Sanger at 4.22 per cent. discount.

UNITED Fruit is revising total sugar yield estimates downward. Total crop from Preston and Banes is now set at 900,000 bags, compared with 1922 record of 1,400,000.

GREENFIELD Tap & Die speculators, who picked up the common at considerably higher figures in hopes of dividend, had these hopes rudely jarred when nothing was forthcoming except payment on preferred.

BEECH-NUT Packing for quarter ended March 31 reports net earnings of $595,737 after charges but before tax, against $392,291 in the same period 1922.

ATCHISON'S 1922 decreased freight revenue was result of rate cut put into effect during year, since system carried 33,812,696 tons of revenue freight, increase of 4,753,158, or 16.3 per cent., over 1921.

BOSTON & Albany's April traffic established a new high record for that month and indications are that earnings will make very favorable showing.

AFTER two years of heavy losses, aggregating roughly $18,000,000, International Paper Co. seems in a fair way to make partial restitution this year.

MOHAWK is steadily increasing its underground force in its two operating shafts.

INSPIRATION during past few month has acquired properties believed to hold substantial ore values.

DESPITE fact Mohawk employs practically no selection in mining lode, amount of waste rock hoisted in less than 5 per cent. Values are uniformly distributed.

QUINCY is steadily importing men, most of them coming from Duluth and northwest points, and is making a small net gain in man power.

HORNBLOWER & WEEKS—We would hold stocks bought earlier in the week. We would not be surprised to see Pere Marquette start a new upward movement any time in the rails.

WILLARD TELLS HOW HE 'MADE GOOD'

By DANIEL WILLARD,
Baltimore & Ohio president.

Distributed by Cosmopolitan News Service.

The problem of earning my own living and the necessity for obtaining a job that would contribute towards that result was the controlling factor in my entering the railroad service.

My first work was for the Central Vermont Railroad Co. I began when I was 18 years old, and received at first 90 cents a day.

I have been in the railroad service continually ever since. I have been with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co. altogether about seventeen years.

Of course, other qualities are also desirable, not to say necessary, but the ones I have mentioned, in my opinion, are among the most important.

REAL ESTATE HAPPENINGS

Charles W. Croteau has sold his farm situated on Cleveland street, Norfolk, to Ernest E. Alger of Watertown. The property comprises sixty-six acres of land, together with a six-room frame cottage, large barn, sheds, chicken houses for 900 hens and other appurtenances of a well equipped farm. Mr. Alger will occupy at once and operate as a poultry farm. The office of Walter Channing negotiated the sale.

DORCHESTER LAND.

A lot of land on Elmont street, located between numbers 20 and 22, comprising a total of 2,925 square feet, has been conveyed by the Charles H. Greenwood estate to Mary G. Caddigan. The assessed value is $600.

PARNELL STREET.

Property at No. 18 Parnell street has been transferred by Ruth A. Edwards to Norman B. Holder. The assessed value is $1,000, of which $700 is on the 816 square feet of land.

TO DISCUSS CITY GROWTH TO NEW HOME AREAS.

The growth of cities to new home areas will be one of the subjects before the National Association of Real Estate Boards, in the home builders' and subdividers' division, at the annual convention of the association which will be held in Cleveland on July 27-30.

A survey covering business methods involved in the building and marketing of homes and the development of new tracts is being made through a confidential questionnaire now being sent to home builders and subdividers, members of the association, in 457 cities. R. G. Lambrecht, chairman of the division's committee on commissions and compensation, will present at the meeting a comprehensive report of the findings indicated by the data so obtained.

J. C. Nichols, of Kansas City, Mo., will discuss zoning as it is applicable to sub-division development; B. E. Taylor, of Detroit, will tell: "How I Solved the Problem of Providing the Working Man's Home"; S. S. Thorpe, of Minneapolis, will speak on financing the subdivision; Guy Greene, of Detroit, will talk on "The Story of Subdivision Development for Apartment House Purposes." Other papers will treat the fundamental principles to be considered in selecting land for subdivision, its improvement in relation to the land, restrictions for subdivisions; the advertising and selling of subdivisions, and the financing and building of the home on the subdivision.

Visiting Starvation Upon the Children—

A Poor Way to Punish Brutality in Their Elders

Copyright, 1922, Star Company

The execution of the Russian clergyman, Monsignor Butchkavitch, was, in the words of Napoleon, "Worse than a crime. It was a blunder."

It has called down upon Russia hatred and contempt throughout the civilized world.

But it would seem that such hatred should deal with full-grown individuals, responsible for the execution.

It is reported that citizens that had contributed funds to purchase clothing and food for sick and starving Russian children have requested the return of their money, in protest against the execution of Father Butchkavitch. It isn't likely that Father Butchkavitch himself or the Founder of Christianity would approve of punishing sick and starving children for the stupid crimes of their elders.

The most beautiful and last words of Christ were:

> Forgive them, Father, they know not what they do.

It is easy to imagine what He would have said to anyone that would have suggested punishing sick, starving children because of His cruel death.

He might have repeated the beautiful words uttered long ago:

> And Jesus called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them. . . .
>
> Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.
>
> And whoso shall receive one such little child in My name receiveth Me.
>
> But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

To fight hungry children is a poor way to avenge a good man's memory.

Convicted Auto Drivers

Registrar Goodwin Right in Refusing to Restore Licenses of Persons Operating Under Influence of Liquor

We absolutely approve of the position which the Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin has taken with respect to those who have been convicted of driving motor cars while under the influence of liquor.

He has issued a circular letter to the courts notifying them that he will not accept a recommendation to restore the license of any person after it has been revoked on account of drunkenness.

The man who operates a motor car while under the influence of liquor breaks three laws. He breaks the law of humanity, for he deliberately (so far as a drunken man can do anything deliberately) puts all humanity which comes in his way in danger of their lives and limbs. He violates the law against the use of intoxicating liquors, and he violates the law against a man under the influence of liquor driving a motor vehicle. He ought never to be allowed to drive a motor vehicle again.

We cannot understand why it should be necessary for Mr. Goodwin to issue this warning to the courts. The courts ought to be the ones to insist upon a rigid enforcement of this law and such strict punishment as will make its enforcement easy hereafter.

A Medal Well Deserved

The award to President Charles W. Eliot of the Medal of Honor for distinguished public service by the Civic Forum is certainly well deserved. We have had few, if any, presidents of our great private colleges who have shown a greater and more independent public spirit than President Eliot. This has been especially true since he ceased to be the active head of Harvard.

We presume that in his heart there always was this independent and enlightened public spirit. We say this notwithstanding his great inconsistency in attacking the Philippine imperialism while urging the country to vote for its high-priest, William McKinley—and for his attitude on union labor.

His view of the good and evil of trade unionism may have been sincere—we believe that it was—but it is more difficult to believe that his advocacy of McKinley's election in 1900 was equally sincere. The excuse he gave was most inadequate, and it paled beside the philippics he hurled against the imperialistic cause to which McKinley was committed.

Probably President Eliot, as the head of Harvard, felt it to be his duty to Harvard to conform, while his conscience required him to attack imperialism at its fountain head. He could not reconcile his two attitudes, and he did not try very hard.

Railway Strike Prevented

The Boston American is greatly pleased that the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway and its employes have reached another agreement which will prevent a strike, and maintain the entente cordiale between the public, which now operates the road, and the union. We congratulate the public trustees of the road, the officers of the union and the men themselves, upon their capacity to see both sides of the question and to reach a peaceful conclusion.

Strikes are like wars. In fact, they are industrial wars, and they are never complete victories for either side. Both sides lose, and the public loses with them.

The public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts and of the Boston Elevated have set a very good example to private managers of railroads, for they came through the deflation of the post-war period without a strike. The reason is that the public trustees, who operate their roads entirely for the public interests, have no stocktickers and no gamblers to conciliate or to take orders from. Their problems are railroad problems, and not stock market problems.

TEACHER HIT CLASSICS AS TOO TAME

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 11.—"Can we rationally expect our students, turned to the swift pace of the auto, the airplane, radio, and the movie, to read with enthusiasm the slow-moving novels of Sir Walter Scott and William Makepeace Thackeray?" asked Miss Enda Paschall, instructor in the Springfield (Ohio) high school, addressing an audience here on "Reforms in College Entrance Requirements."

Recommendation that most of the classics be dropped, that the legends, folk tales and King Arthur stories be restored in the grades, that a reserve list be maintained for extremely mature pupils and that some be studied historically in the colleges and universities was made by Miss Paschall.

She urged "fewer classics and a larger number of modern writings; less emphasis upon literary form, more upon thought content and greater individual freedom in the selection of readings."

Thanks From R. I. Democrats

Editor Boston American:

Whereas, the Democratic members of the Rhode Island State Senate under the leadership of Hon. Felix A. Toupin, Lieutenant-Governor, has been conducting during the present session of the General Assembly of this State an active and unceasing fight for progressive legislation, and

Whereas, they have succeeded in compelling the autocratic Republican majority in the Committee on Special Legislation to report out the Democratic platform reform measures, such as the forty-eight-hour law, the act calling for a constitutional convention, the act abolishing the property qualification, and the act providing for the redistricting of the Senate, and

Whereas, said Democratic minority has conducted by its activities and persistent criticism a great fight which has educated the people of the State to a realization of the corruption existent in the legislative branch of the State government;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that we, the Lieutenant-Governor and the Democratic Senators in caucus assembled extend to the Boston American our sincere thanks for its hearty support of our battles for legislative reform, by its well written reports of the Senate proceedings and its cogent criticism of the reactionary Republican majority, and above all for the remarkable spirit of fairness and accuracy both in the news column and editorial when it has referred to the present session of the Rhode Island Senate, thereby bringing to the attention of thousands of people of this State the conditions which deserve reform,

And, be it further resolved, that this caucus thank not only the Boston American but also its representative, Mr. Charles Power, for the help given in educating the people of Rhode Island during the present session of the Rhode Island State Senate.

DANIEL W. COGGESHALL,
Chairman.
JOHN J. McGRANE, Secretary.

T. B. Sufferer Needs Suit

Editor Helping Hand:

I have been suffering from tuberculosis for the last eight years and have been out of work for the last two years. If there is anyone who has a man's suit size 36 or 38, or a second-hand pair of shoes size 8, I will appreciate it very much.
T. D.

Would Aid Two

Editor Helping Hand:

Kindly send me the address of G. McC. I may be able to help her. Wish you would also send me the address of the girl who has been in the hospital for four years.
MRS. F. F.

ED. NOTE—Thank you. Both addresses will be sent you.

Offers New Shoes

Editor Helping Hand:

I have two pairs of new shoes that I never have worn; one size 4½ C and the other 5 C, that I would be glad to give to some woman who could wear them.
MRS. M. B. C.

ED. NOTE—These will be very welcome somewhere and will be held for replies. Thank you.

Help for Mrs. S.

Editor Helping Hand:

Would you kindly put me in touch with Mrs. S., who needs a baby coat? I think I could help her out. If she does not live too far away I would be glad to help her out in some way.
MRS. D. L.

ED. NOTE—She lives in Peabody. Her full address will be sent you. Thank you.

Invalid Needs Clothes

Editor Helping Hand:

After being in the hospital for an operation I came out and then fell and broke my shoulder. My husband has been out of work some time in addition. I wonder if any of the readers could give me some underwear, size 40, or clothing for a boy three and girls four and six?
MRS. L. H.

Cape for Mrs. E. M. 3

Editor Helping Hand:

Please send me Mrs. E. M. 3's address. I have a cape I will send her.

ED. NOTE—Thank you. Mrs. C. H. W.'s address will be sent you.

Widow Wants Clothes

Editor Helping Hand:

I am a widow sixty-five years old, left without means, and can't work on account of rheumatism. I would like to find somebody who would have some underclothes or corsets to help a poor woman. I am very large, with 48 to 50 bust and 38 waist.
M. M. C.

Help for Deserted Mother

Editor Helping Hand:

I saw your letter from a deserted mother who asked for help. I lost my family in the Halifax, N. S., explosion in December, and I know what it is to be left alone. I will help all I can if you will send her address.
W. M.

ED. NOTE—Your help and sympathy will mean a lot. Mrs. M. H.'s address will be sent you.

House Dresses and Suit

Editor Helping Hand:

I have some clothes that I think would help Mrs. E. R.—a couple of house dresses and a suit. Will you put me in touch with her?
MRS. P. D.

ED. NOTE—Thank you. Her address will be sent you.

Vet Needs Suit

Editor Helping Hand:

Have any of your kind readers got a man's suit that is still serviceable? I am an ex-service man; was gassed in the army. I haven't worked very much for the past two years, as I wasn't able to. I have a wife and a child to support. I am working at present for a small salary, but I haven't any clothes fit to go on the street with. I've got a lot of bills to pay, so I don't see how I can buy a suit for a long time. I am quite stout, weigh about 190 pounds, chest measure 42 and waist 40. If any of your kind readers have a suit they don't need, I shall be greatly obliged, and I could pay for it a little each week.

All atrocity isn't overseas. Turkey, looking toward Tallahassee, can properly claim that the United States has an Armenia, too.

Society's favorite playground also appears to be slavery's latest stronghold.

Every development in the Florida Legislature's peonage probe forecasts the necessity of congressional investigation and if necessary another constitutional amendment.

Human right transcends State sovereignty. No Commonwealth, no union can traffic in its people, can mint their blood for timber and turpentine dividends, confer capital authority on private enterprise or license the irresponsible of lash without finally rendering account to public opinion.

Unmask the Man Behind the Game

Democracy itself stands in same dock with whipping bosses and shares their guilt when adventurous lads guilty of nothing more than wayfaring are snatched from the roads and delivered to bondage and the blacksnake whip; when witnesses testify how twenty-one convicts, leased to one State Senator alone, died while under his control; all within one year and allegedly from inhuman treatment.

Down with a system that fosters such abominations.

Up with the names of companies and executive officers engaged in the traffic and profiting from this piteous labor.

Let their friends and home communities realize the source of wealths blatantly spent on mansions, limousines and luxury.

Show the brand of Cain on their miserable dollars—unmask the men behind the game—and social ostracism, club blacklists and general contempt will deal them the least of their due.

Lord Cecil for Vice-President

The gentleman from New Hampshire, one of the capital's few European experts, brings back refortified views against any form of foreign entanglement.

Diplomatic spears are poised above the thin tenuous bond between Moscow and London. Curzon gives Trotzky ten days to withdraw his propagandists, guarantee non-interference with English politics, make compensation for harm done to His Majesty's subjects and their property, and withdraw insulting replies to notes against the Butchkavitch sentence and subsequent religious oppression.

Senator Moses is wise in advising such an international amateur as the United States to stay out of intrigue's arena.

Nothing Left but the Boycott

Prohibition officials will appeal the decision which unfortunately threatens to invalidate an important section of the new narcotic law.

If Chief Justice Taft and associates have many more cases thrust upon them compulsion will increase the membership of the Supreme bench.

Nipped in the Bud

Several kinds of frosts are sweeping the news.

May blizzards play havoc with the promise of mid-West crops, and a forty-degree thermometer drop through the East indicates unsatisfactory fruit and berry yields.

Labor throws a cloud into the sky by demanding a dollar a day increase for bricklayers and other workers—which promptly chills the ardor of capital and puts many started and intended projects indefinitely on ice.

The Thompson Starrett Company receives instructions to stop short on $7,000,000 worth of contracts. Columbia University delays an announced $10,000,000 extension program and $21,000,000 worth of other undertakings are nipped in the bud by confiscatory costs.

Exorbitant wages will depress employment, halt home production and draw a vicious circle of common losses.

Free born citizens are entitled to charge as they please for services rendered, but if the unions don't keep the building game worth the income candle constructors won't play it.

Still Some Bad Spots in the Road

Secretary Hoover discounts the croaks of statistical frogs. He wants us to keep up enthusiasm and cheer prosperity along.

Department of Commerce estimates don't disclose over-expansion on the contrary.

We'll have troubles of a different nature if strikes spread and boreas makes many more unseasonal breaks.

General agricultural conditions are not so satisfactory that we can afford to break furniture at this stage of affairs.

Domestic demand is growing, but foreigners are eating less of our bread. Any considerable degree of unemployment would hit the farmer on a rather empty pocket.

Secretary Wallace is pleased at rural outlooks, but can't be said to gloat.

There are more sheep in production, cornfields are larger, but caution is planting wheat, raising hogs and restraining potato culture.

Hiram will have to watch his p's and q's.

Groceries, implements, clothes and overhead are grabbing for almost every dollar he earns. We haven't yet passed ALL the bad spots in the road.
